The Honorable Roxanne Bailin
District Court Judge

Dear Judge Bailin:

The People, through District Attorney Mary T. Lacy, hereby request that this Court order the warrant and supporting affidavit, and all other associated documents submitted to this Court in connection with this arrest warrant, including this letter, be sealed for 90 days or until further order of this Court, except for use in any extradition proceedings to bring the suspect to this jurisdiction. The People request that the Court order its staff and that of the Court Clerk to deny access to any and all of these documents for the pendency of the investigation or until the matter can be reviewed after charges are filed, pursuant to §24-72-305(5), C.R.S. and §24-72-204(2)(a)(I), C.R.S. The reasons for this request are stated below.

1. There is an ongoing murder investigation initiated by the Boulder Police Department and now pursued by the District Attorney for the Twentieth Judicial District into the homicide of JONBENET RAMSEY. The date of this homicide was between December 25, 1996 and December 26, 1996. No arrest has yet been made. The public and the press throughout this country and throughout the world have shown substantial interest in this investigation.

2. The District Attorney has submitted herewith an affidavit in support of an arrest warrant in this investigation. This was done as part of a lengthy and complicated cooperative effort of a number of law enforcement agencies in this country and abroad.

3. The suspect has not yet been taken into custody and is in a foreign country. It is highly likely he would flee and go into hiding if he were to learn that the authorities know his identity, whereabouts, and other information in these documents.

4. The affidavit, warrant, and other documents submitted to this Court in connection with the various search warrants issued to date contain specific information from the investigatory records of various law enforcement agencies, including the Boulder Police Department, the Boulder County District Attorney, and the Boulder County Coroner, about the homicide of JonBenet Ramsey. Some of that information has not been disclosed to anyone outside law enforcement.

5. The investigation to date has resulted in the identification of the suspect and his location, but substantial further investigation will be necessary.

6. Premature disclosure of these documents at this sensitive point in this new stage of this lengthy investigation would be likely to be detrimental to the effort to execute this warrant, apprehend the suspect, and to return the suspect to this jurisdiction. Likewise, premature disclosure of the information contained in these documents during the pendency of the investigation that will follow taking this suspect into custody could compromise those ongoing efforts, including impacting witness statements to law enforcement and otherwise jeopardize the ability of law enforcement authorities to collect, interpret, and evaluate information and could impede further investigation and conviction of the killer.

7. Disclosure of the information within these records would be contrary to, and would do substantial injury to, the public interest involved in this ongoing investigation.

8. Pursuant to 24-72-305(5), C.R.S. (with regard to criminal justice records), the custodian of criminal justice records may allow inspection of such records except "on the ground that disclosure would be contrary to the public interest, and unless otherwise provided by law, the custodian may deny access to the records of investigations conducted by or of intelligence information or security procedures of any sheriff, district attorney, or police department or any criminal justice investigatory files compiled for any other law enforcement purpose."

9. The District Attorney, as custodian of the records of her office, has determined that disclosure of their records of this investigation, including disclosure of those portions of those records contained in the affidavit, warrant, and other documents submitted to this Court in connection with the various search warrants issued to date, would be contrary to the public interest and have determined to deny access to their records for the pendency of this investigation.

10. It is in the public interest that access to the records and files compiled by the law enforcement agencies involved in this investigation be denied during the pendency of the investigation, including those records and files which have been provided this Court in connection with the warrants which have been requested and approved.

Wherefore, the People respectfully request the Court seal the warrant, affidavit, and other documents submitted to this Court in connection with the arrest warrant issued today, including this request, except for use in any extradition proceedings to return the suspect to this jurisdiction, and that the Court order its staff and that of the Court Clerk to deny access to any and all of these documents for the pendency of the investigation or until the matter can be reviewed after charges are filed.

Respectfully,

Peter Maguire

Assistant District Attorney

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Your affiant is certified through the Colorado Peace Officers Standards and Training as an instructor in criminal investigations.

Your affiant requests an Arrest Warrant be issued based on the following:

On 12/26/96, at 5:57 AM, a 911 telephone call was received at the Boulder Police Department, address 1805 33rd Street, Boulder, Boulder County, Colorado. The caller identified herself as Patricia Ann Ramsey, DOB/ 12-29-56. Patricia, or "Patsy" as she is known by her family and friends, reported her daughter -JonBenet Ramsey DOB/08-06-90 (age 6 at the time of the incident) had been kidnapped from the Ramsey residence located at 755 15th Street, City of Boulder, Boulder County, Colorado. Ms. Ramsey added a handwritten ransom note had been left in the house. The kidnappers demanded $118,000.00. The kidnappers indicated in the note that they would call back at 10:00 AM with further instructions.

Boulder Police Department Crime Report P96-21871 addresses the investigation.

Boulder Police Officer Rick French was the first officer to arrive at the scene and made contact with the parents of the victim, identified as John Bennett Ramsey DOB/12-07-43 and his wife Patricia Ramsey. The parents related that the previous evening, this being Christmas day 12/25/96, they along with JonBenet Ramsey age 6 and JonBenet's brother identified as Burke Hamilton Ramsey DOB/01-27-87 (age 9) had attended a Christmas party at a friends house and had returned to the Ramsey home at approximately 10:00 PM. JonBenet was asleep in the family vehicle upon arrival at the Ramsey residence. John Ramsey carried JonBenet from the family vehicle to the second floor bedroom she occupied in the home. JonBenet was last seen in her bed asleep at approximately 10:00 PM on 12/25/96. John Ramsey, his wife Patsy Ramsey and their son Burke also retired at approximately 10:30 PM. John and Patsy Ramsey retired to their upper level master bedroom. Burke retired to his own bedroom.

The Ramsey family had previously prepared for a trip to Charlevoix, Michigan the next morning (December 26, 1996) using a small private airplane.

Patsy Ramsey stated she awoke shortly after 5:30 AM the morning of 12/26/96 and was going to prepare for the trip to Charlevoix, Michigan. Patsy Ramsey checked the bedroom of JonBenet and noticed her daughter was not in her bed. Patsy descended a spiral staircase leading from the second floor to the first floor and found a 3-page handwritten note on the stairs. Ms. Ramsey briefly reviewed the note and determined that it was a note demanding ransom. Patsy Ramsey told her husband John Ramsey of the discovery of the note. Patsy and John Ramsey checked their daughter's room and discovered JonBenet was missing from her bedroom. Patsy Ramsey called 911 and reported the kidnapping to the Boulder, Colorado Police Department.

Officer Rick French arrived and conducted a preliminary examination of the Ramsey residence and was unable to locate JonBenet Ramsey in the home. Officer French requested assistance at the scene by way of his police radio.

Other Boulder Police Officers including Detective Linda Arndt responded to the scene. The scene was initially treated as a kidnapping. Telephone surveillance was initiated pending the anticipated telephone call from the kidnapers at 10:00 AM. The phone call was not received at the Ramsey home. At approximately 1:00 PM on the same date of 12-26-96, Detective Arndt asked John Ramsey and a friend of Mr. Ramsey, identified as Fleet White DOB/05-19-49 to search the home again.

John Ramsey and Fleet White entered the basement of the residence. John Ramsey found his daughter on the floor in a windowless storeroom. JonBenet Ramsey was partially covered with a blanket and had duct tape on her mouth. Ligatures were on her wrists and a garrote type device was around her throat. John Ramsey related that he removed the duct tape from his daughter's mouth and one of the ligatures from her wrists and then picked her up and brought her upstairs. A red colored ink marking was noted on the palm of her left hand. Mr. Ramsey was instructed by Detective Arndt to lay his daughter on the floor of the hallway near the front door of the residence. A short time later JonBenet's body was moved from the hallway to the living room. JonBenet Ramsey was deceased and it appeared as though she had been murdered.

On 12-27-96 Dr. John Meyers, the coroner for the Boulder Coroner's Office, conducted an autopsy. The external examination of JonBenet Ramsey revealed she was attired in white colored sweatshirt or similar apparel and white colored sweat pants with an elastic waistband. Under the sweatpants, JonBenet wore white colored underwear bearing the lettering of "WEDNESDAY" on the elastic waistband. Suspected bloodstains were evident on the underwear. A bracelet was noted on JonBenet's right wrist. Inscribed on one side of the bracelet was the name "JonBenet" on the opposite side the date of "12-25-96" was inscribed. JonBenet's blonde hair was fixed in two (2) ponytails, affixed with either a cloth hair tie and/or blue elastic bands. Detectives with the Boulder Police Department, attending the autopsy, seized numerous items of evidence, including the aforementioned items of clothing, bracelet, rope ligatures and the garrote type device containing various knots. The handwritten ransom note was placed into evidence. These evidentiary items were later submitted to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation for analysis

The cause of death of JonBenet Ramsey as determined by Dr. Meyers was asphyxia by strangulation associated with craniocerebral injuries. Also there was evidence of trauma and bleeding to the vaginal area. The manner of death was Homicide.

On 12-30-96, the bloodstains obtained from the panties of JonBenet were submitted to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation for testing. The lab results indicated that the major component of blood was attributed to JonBenet Ramsey. A secondary minor component was also found.

A large number of witness were interviewed including all Ramsey family members, close friends of the Ramsey family, business associates of Mr. Ramsey coupled with a Neighborhood Investigation. Numerous items of evidence were collected and submitted to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation Crime Laboratory for forensic analysis. However, the case remained unsolved.

Criminalist Greg LaBerge of the Denver Police Laboratory conducted tests on the bloodstains found in the panties of JonBenet. The results indicated that the minor secondary source of DNA contained a male fraction.

On 01-07-04 the minor secondary source of DNA found in the bloodspots of the panties was submitted to the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) Database to be compared with existing and future samples submitted.

On May 10, 2006, your affiant conducted an interview with Michael Tracey, DOB/08-07-48, a Journalism Professor with the University of Colorado. Mr. Tracey produced a documentary on the death of JonBenet Ramsey entitled, "JonBenet's America", which aired in Europe during July 1998. Mr. Tracey also produced another documentary entitled "Who Killed the Pageant Queen" that was aired December 2004 in the United States. Mr. Tracey advised your affiant, that on September 10, 2002, he received an E-mail from an individual identifying himself as "December 25 1996@Yahoo.com". I later determined the E-mail was received at 4:31 PM Mountain Standard Time (MST). The E-mail was entitled "Our Sweetest JonBenet". This marked the first of a series of E-mails Mr. Tracey received from "December 25 1996" during the next four years.

Mr. Tracey has provided your affiant with either printed copies of the E-mails he has received from the unidentified author or he has provided an electronic storage device containing the E-mails received

The writer used the name of "December 25 1996@Yahoo.com" initially with his correspondence with Michael Tracey.

Appearing for the first time, on an E-mail received by Mr. Tracey on November 23, 2002, received at 2:59 PM MST, titled, "An Important Message", is the name of December1996@ziplip.com.

Appearing for the first time on an E-mail received by Mr. Tracey on September 20, 2005, at 6:00 PM MST, titled, "Never a Response" is the name of "December1996@Hushmail.com".

The individual identifying himself as "December 25 1996@Yahoo.com" advised Michael Tracey in his original E-mail sent on September 10, 2002 at 4:31 PM MST, titled, "Our Sweetest JonBenet", that he (December 25 1996@Yahoo.com) met an acquaintance of Mr. Tracey, while vacationing in Paris, France. The acquaintance of Mr. Tracey was later identified as: Michael D. Sandrock DOB/ 04-15-58.

Your Affiant conducted an interview with Michael Sandrock on May 12, 2006. Mr. Sandrock advised your affiant he recalled being in Paris, France approximately seven (7) years ago and met an individual at the "Shakespeare and Company" bookstore. Michael Sandrock advised the individual that he (Sandrock) was a reporter with the Boulder, Colorado Daily Camera Newspaper. The unidentified male immediately stated, "Boulder, that is where JonBenet Ramsey was killed."

The unknown male asked Mr. Sandrock if he was acquainted with Michael Tracey, a Journalism Professor with the University of Colorado. Sandrock stated he was familiar with Mr. Tracey and provided Michael Tracey's E-mail address to the unidentified male.

Mr. Sandrock described the unidentified male whom he conversed with at the Paris, France bookstore approximately seven (7) years ago as a Caucasian Male, mid 30's, medium height about height 5'08", slender athletic build, dark blonde collar length hair (full head of hair, no thinning) clean shaven, void of any visible scars, marks or tattoos. The male did not wear prescription lens glasses. He did not speak with an accent. The male did not exhibit a limp while walking. The male had a normal gait to his strides. According to Mr. Sandrock, the male was attired in a short sleeve shirt, possibly a polo style shirt. He wore slacks of an unknown color on one occasion and shorts of an unknown color on another occasion. Mr. Sandrock added, the male appeared "neat and clean" as opposed to many persons visiting the bookstore that were attired in hiking clothing and appeared to be "Backpacking through Europe. They can get a little grubby."

It should be noted, contained in an E-mail received by Michael Tracey from "December 1996" at an unspecified date and time and forwarded to former Inv. Lou Smit of the Boulder District Attorney's Office on May 4, 2006 at 10:54 AM MST, the male advised Mr. Tracey the aforementioned description as provided by Michael Sandrock was incorrect. "December 1996" remarks, "I am not medium height. I am small. I do not have light hair. My hair is dark and my eyes are a piercing blue." Former Inv. Smit forwarded the aforementioned E-mail to your affiant on the same date of May 4, 2006.

Initially the E-mails received by Journalism Professor Michael Tracey, from "December 1996@Yahoo.com" contained voluminous amounts of verbiage indicating the writer's infatuation with young girls. Often writing about his love of young females and his continued love of JonBenet Ramsey.

Mr. Tracey has provided your affiant with either printed copies of the E-mails he has received from the unidentified author or he has provided an electronic storage device containing the E-mails received. Your affiant has reviewed the E-mail correspondence and determined the typical E-mail message provided to your affiant is a series of communications between Mr. Tracey and "December1996". Often Michael Tracey receives a message from the writer and the message is forwarded to your affiant's attention. This original message is followed by Mr. Tracey's reply to the writer. Contained within Mr. Tracey's reply are portions of the original text of the letter writer's response

A review of the supplied E-mail messages provided by Michael Tracey coupled with an interview your affiant conducted with Mr. Tracey on May 10, 2006 at 2:00 PM, the following information was gleaned.

Within an untitled E-Mail received by Mr. Tracey on December 31, 2002 at 5:24 PM Mountain Standard Time (MST) "December 1996@ziplip.com" writes "You are a special friend to me. You cannot know how important you are to me." The aforementioned verbiage is the first sentence in this E-mail that is five pages in length.

Michael Tracey received other E-mails from "December 1996@ziplip.com" detailing the writer's travels across Europe with "his girls" referring to the numerous young children in his company.

Contained within an E-mail received by Michael Tracey on January 3, 2003 at 6:04 PM MST, and titled, "My Daughter", "December1996@ziplip.com" the writer states, "I present to you a lovely child – a little girl who is so pretty and and (sic) with the power to captivate my heart and a thousand others like mine. I present to you: my daughter...." The writer adds, "I tend to think of Dodgson and his young Loves, much like my own, and his incredible way with them, most like my way with lovely little girls – the most incredible living beings on this earth..." The writer attaches a photograph of a young girl, attired in a large dark colored hat, light colored long sleeve blouse, dark overcoat and shoes. A bracelet is noted on her left wrist. She is lying on her stomach with her feet curled up near her back. Her Light colored hair is past her shoulders. She is holding the stem of a rose in her right hand with the rose near her mouth while her face is held in the palm of her left hand. She is smiling. The photo of the child is in black and white. The photograph is titled, "My Daughter."

In a January 12, 2003 E-mail received by Michael Tracey, at 6:40 AM MST, titled, "Important", "December 1996@ziplip.com" writes, "You have asked me who I am and so I will tell you. Yes, I am a psychic and yes I speak to the dead. But more than this, I am a kind, loving, affectionate person who cares for children. Just last night, I went to the bed of a lovely little girl and comforted her as she cried. She did not feel well, she said. I stroked her hair and face and said, "Sweetheart everything will be all right. I am here to help you and take care of you. I care for you so much." I am that man who watched this little girl smile with relief as she listened to those golden words flow so fluently from my mouth into her attentive, understanding ears. I kissed her softly good night and left her room not before I made sure the light flowed into her room to her liking. That, my friend, is who you are talking to. I am a man who cherishes little girls and protects them with all that is in him."

The E-mails from "December1996@ziplip.com" continued through 2003. Typically lengthy messages were sent to Michael Tracey, often several pages in length, which Mr. Tracy responded to. On rare occasions, Michael Tracey did not respond immediately to the sender's E-mails, which prompted the sender to repeatedly remind Michael Tracey of his lack of response.

Mr. Tracey requested the sender of the E-mails, known only as December1996@ziplip.com to divulge his identity. Contained within an E-mail received by Mr. Tracey on August 26, 2003 at 2:49 AM MST, titled "An Appropriate Season", "December1996@ziplip.com" writes, "After all the months we have talked and the guarding I have done, you would suggest I make an on camera appearance? And what do you expect me to say/ I am most surprised at you. I told you I would write under a pen name and collect proceeds through a European numbered account and you come back with this offer."

"December1996@ziplip.com" continued to write to Mr. Tracey during 2003 detailing his love of JonBenet Ramsey. The writer mentions his visits to 755 15th Street in Boulder, Colorado, which is the residential address of the Ramsey family when the First Degree Murder of their daughter, JonBenet Ramsey occurred. The writer also mentions his visits to the grave of JonBenet Ramsey where he prayed for her. However, the writer provides no details of these visits. The writer only mentions the fact that he visited both the residence and the gravesite.

Mr. Tracey did not receive any E-mails from "December 1996@ziplip.com" during 2004.

Commencing September 20, 2005 at 6:00 PM MST, December1996@hushmail.com begins communicating again with Michael Tracey. The E-mail is titled, "Never a Response". The writer mentions within the September 20, 2005 E-mail, .... "Here is my final word to you and everyone involved in this case: You are chasing in the wrong direction (as always) and leaving the most important link to JonBenet behind. You chased me away."

The aforementioned E-mail was the first E-mail received by Michael Tracey with the sender's new address of "December1996@hushmail.com".

Within an E-mail dated October 7, 2005 bearing a time of 2:48 AM MST, titled, "JonBenet's Closet", Michael Tracey writes to "December 1996@hushmail.com", "The case is creeping away from everyone else and becoming a very chilly case. By the tenth anniversary it will be in deep freeze, unsolved and apparently unsolvable."

December1996@hushmail.com answers, "It will continue to creep away until a new person rises up and speaks. I believe that person to be me though no one is listening publicly to me..."

Within the body of the same E-mail dated October 7, 2005, December1996@hushmail.com writes, "...I had spoken to the parents and the grandparents of JonBenet about this months or more prior to Lou Smit's revelation. Yes I have communicated with the Ramseys since her death. It was always to no avail. Recall the E-mail contact you granted. Nothing came of it and will not. I think it is too painful for them to communicate with me. I have always had such good rapport with parents."

The individual referred to as "Lou Smit" is former Investigator Lou Smit of the Boulder District Attorney's Office."

During the latter portion of 2005, December1996@hushmail.com continues to write of his fascination with and love for JonBenet Ramsey. The writer also mentions his love of little girls.

The communications between Michael Tracey and December1996@hushmail.com cease during January and February of 2006. Partly due to Mr. Tracey not responding to each and every E-mail that the sender had provided. Often, in past E-mail messages, December1996@hushmail.com instructed Mr. Tracey to answer specifically each question he had posed. If the answer was not provided, the writer would remind Mr. Tracey to provide the answer.

Commencing in March 2006, E-mail exchanges were initiated between Michael Tracey and December1996@hushmail.com. The following example received on March 11, 2006 at 4:47 AM, Mountain Standard Time (MST) titled, "My Last Two Letters", is illustrative of the E-mails the unknown writer has provided to Mr. Tracey. The text is copied verbatim from the E-mail received by Mr. Tracey and provided to your affiant by Mr. Tracey through an electronic storage device. Here are my last two letters from January that you never responded to. You really hurt me when you just drop out for months at a time.
I was really starting to open up to you about what happened to me in the United States and you just left me hanging. You know how important it is to me to talk about JonBenet to someone. If not you, who? Her parents won't talk to me anymore. Who can I turn to?
Do you know that answer?

Michael,

There was so much that you missed in my last mail. It is sad that your responses seem rushed. I share so much in my letters and would share so much more if you would not allow so many lapses in our correspondences.

>Hi, sure we are still talking. I've been working on the book. It's >agonizing and daunting.

I am a busy person as well. I am a teacher at a Catholic school for girls. I arrive home exhausted but would make time for serious dialogue with you.

"One thought you had, and which you have offered in various forms, that I really like is your reference to the ransom note being a distraction, rather in the way in which a magician works. A very interesting metaphor. Can I steal it?"

Michael, please do not even joke about stealing things from me. No you may not "steal" any words or thoughts I have shared. Lou Smit and others have done that to me and it is wrong. It prompts me to keep silent.

"Tell me more about your childhood."

I was rather holding back the traditional story that would certainly place your attention on all the psychological crap that people usually focus on. It would be as diversionary as the ransom note.

"why was it paradoxical?"

While it was wonderful, it was also traumatic at times.

"When were you orphaned?"

At four.

"Obviously I would like to know about the accusations against you."

There were several accusations that spanned several states.

"I noticed that you say, in relation to the 12 year old, that you were the suspect "of course." why? why would it be inevitable?

You are scanning my mails... Please don't do that. I never said it was inevitable. I never said, "of course".

"Or are you suggesting that you knew the child?"

I did not know this girl. I have been connected closely with a very few 12 year old girls since this age is above the age of the girls I work with. I was closely connected with one twelve year old girl in the past.

"Sorry for all the questions, I'm just trying to understand."

Questions are welcome. It is the silence that I cannot respond to.

"The other obvious question from our recent conversation is why would your attorney even have to ask you if you killed JonBenet?"

Because my connection with JonBenet along with many other evidential factors would have led anyone to believe it true. I simply knew too much and was too deeply connected.

"I'm also drawn to ask the questions because you say that in what you are telling me now you are "only scratching the surface."

It is difficult to get deep here with weeks of silence until I finally have to ask you to write back. How can I share much at all at that rate?

"One correction: I said that I never did see photos of my father, at least not for many years. why though did my comment strike a chord with you?"

Michael, please read my mails carefully. This is where I shared something so secret with you and so dear to me. You totally missed it. It was not cryptic: I made a statement and you still missed it.

"One other point, I would still like to talk with you on the phone. I have this curious need to know what your voice sounds like."

The first time I was brought in for questioning by law enforcement, they wanted to do voice analysis by recording my voice. I know they had some reason for that as it related to the investigations. What is your reason? As you never address my fears and reservations that I wrote just in my last letter, why would I give a phone number to you that would trace my exact location? Law enforcement would swarm down on me and my life would be destroyed as badly as it was before I left the U.S.

"Now it's back to the writing."

Now it's back to teaching little girls.

Stay in touch Michael. There is an unreal amount that you do not know about me. I might consider sharing it as long as you do not "steal" it.

Did you get my last letter.....??....

This was so important to me yet you never responded to this....

This was sent weeks ago.

"I visited the house, with your note. I always find being there very sad and poignant."

Michael... Is that it? Did you read my message to her as I requested?

I am divulging my deepest secrets to you. I feel you do not appreciate what courage this takes and that you mostly disregard much of what I write here. Instead of seriously wishing to allow me to have input in an official way in your writings, you mention instead that you wish to "steal" my words. It hurts, Michael. I am a human being. Not only that, I hurt. I only wish I could at least speak to someone who cares.

A March 20, 2006 E-mail received by Michael Tracey at 11:57 AM MST titled, "JonBenet Ramsey / My Response", "December1996@hushmail.com" wrote the following, "I am attracted to little girls and not young girls. Though little girls are very young, young girls could be considered teens. There is a fine line that separates those who are attracted to little girls and those who are attracted to young girls. There is something psychological about everything; however I am in sharp disagreement that my attraction is to be labeled as a paraphillia in the respected Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders where homosexuality once held a place in the paraphillia category until it became a political power."

A March 25, 2006 E-mail received by Michael Tracey at 6:08AM MST, titled, "Part I" "December1996@hushmail.com" mentions, "My access to the internet is limited. I usually get an hour per day with no privacy which alters my writing to you. I think I will reply to this mail in parts." The writer adds within the text of the message, "The note was "written on paper found in the house.....There was plenty of DNA". The writer also notes, "The killers were smart but the note was not so cleverly written."

Within the text of a March 26, 2006 Email received by Michael Tracey at 2:08 AM MST, titled, "Part 2 Plus", "December1996@hushmail.com" writes "I loved that time when I was still close enough to talk to the parents and grandparents of JonBenet. I think the Paughs dealt with the murder like the Ramseys should have dealt with the murder - a wreath placed on their front door with a card reading, "No Comment". The Ramseys have made so many mistakes exposing themselves to the press."

The name "Paughs" refers to the parents of Patsy Ramsey.

An E-mail received March 28, 2006 at 4:24 AM MST by Mr. Tracey and titled, "Kisses for JonBenet", "December1996@hushmail.com" writes, "JonBenet was taken from her bed peacefully by a female. She was simply lifted into the girl's arms and carried quietly downstairs. The girl felt like her mother, smelled like her mother, was soft and sweet like her mother. JonBenet was a heavy sleeper. It was attributed to her bounding energy during her waking hours. She was quiet and reserved. She was playful and very alive.

When the time came for sleep, she slept hard. Nothing covered her mouth nor was she drugged or stunned or harmed in any way when she was removed from her bed. Genius, many times, overlooks simplicity."

The writer also mentions in the same E-mail received by Mr. Tracey on March 28, 2006, "I have had sex with teens and I have had sex with little girls. The experience is unreal and limited. That is what fuels the sexual frustration. The frustration is unreal. Most of my life has been celebrate (sic) In every case where I had sexual or romantic relationship with a little girl, 10 or younger, I have gone straight to the mother and revealed my feelings and actions. Their reactions might surprise you."

Within an E-mail dated March 30, 2006 and received at 1:38 AM MST, titled, "My Kingdom for a Red Pen", December1996@hushmail.com begins to write of specific clothing items worn by JonBenet Ramsey on the night of her death. Specifically the writer mentions her underwear, which he describes as "knickers". He mentions the waistband of the victim's underwear contained the word "Wednesday" which in fact was printed on the underwear. The writer reiterates his love for JonBenet Ramsey and how her spirit was with him during a recent visit to Alps of Austria and Paris, France. 0.55 NO_REAL_NAME From: does not include a real name
Michael,

Again, PLEASE stop quoting my sensitive mails and sending them back to me at the bottom of your mails. Thank you.

>Morning, this e-mail obviously I found fascinating.

I am glad. I do not write anything to fascinate you. I'm only sharing. Sharing anything about JonBenet's death is horrible for me. I am sure you are familiar with post traumatic stress disorder. It was first diagnosed in soldiers returning from Vietnam. It applies to me when it comes to recalling the events of the night of 25 December, 1996 in that I do not recall everything or block out most of the events as a way of naturally numbing myself.

>I am sorry both to hear that you are in a lot of emotional pain. But >most of all I was terribly sorry to hear about your daughters. What >happened. It must be terrible to lose young children.

I thank you very much for your sympathy. It brings a personal connection between us. Without that, sharing what I have would be impossible. I shall not have another daughter for the rest of my life or any other children which makes it even harder to have lost the daughters I had. I still have other children. I grieve their loss though they are still alive as far as I know.

>Of course John Ramsey knows exactly how a how a father feels. But he nor Patsy show the pain that I feel. They never have. I have always been amazed at how little emotions they have shown. When you gave them the chance to talk to me again, they simply refused. Had that been I, it would have been at least worth a few minutes of my time to talk to a person who knew something about the death of my child. Do you still have access to the Ramseys? Can you pick up the phone and call them or send e-mails to them?

>Re the MPD I've often wondered if Douglas was correct in saying that >it was not associated with violence. From your words it sounds as if >you have researched the subject. I suspect that you are correct.

I have studied psychology. I especially have poured over the DSM - the APA bible. I have almost as much beef with them as do the Scientologists. I feel the same about law enforcement but I have also studied law. Cases I recall regarding MPD have involved people who actually had a different hand writing and even wore different prescription glasses as their personalities changed.

>what I don't quite understand is the idea that JonBenet was removed >from her room without being stunned. I've got the autopsy photos and >have done quite a lot of research on stun guns and the marks on her >face and back sure as hell look like stun gun marks to me. Could they >have happened after she was removed from the room.

The reason this case remains unsolved is that you are clinging to known theories. I am telling you that a stun gun was not used on JonBenet in her room. What would be the first reaction of a stun gun application? I do not know if ever one was used on her. She was removed from her room just as I described. It is the natural way. But law enforcement deals in MO's. That is all they understand.

>When you say you remember her knickers in every detail, I'm >assuming you mean JonBenet's.

I did mean JonBenet. But while we are on the subject, I can recall the knickers of other little girls. I have an affinity for lovely little knickers. I suppose you could call that a fetish since it is a sexual attraction to an inanimate object. It is one of the paraphilias cited by the DSM. Wow.

>I was amused by the fact that you as an American had adopted the >term knickers and I as a Brit used the term panties.

How do you know I am completely American? I know Europe better than America. Might I interest you in using the term knickers again? It is so much more lovely.

>One thing that you wrote that makes absolute sense to me is that >the killer spent a lot of time kissing her

I am glad you understood that. He did kiss her a lot. As is mandatory in most autopsies, there is always a swab of the inside of the mouth and the inside of the anus. But no one did a lot of swabbing on her mouth, I suppose because of the tape that covered her mouth. It was a mistake not to.

>he would want to possess her in as many different ways as possible.

Kissing is a form of worship. Though I am very possessive, I kiss to show respect and to taste her. It is the same way you might kiss a woman but for me it is much more powerful when it is done with a little girl.

>I'm also convinced that he performed oral sex on her. Does that give >with your way of thinking?

Oral sex is the main means of having sex with a child. It is the only natural choice. No one who truly, romantically loves a little girl would try to penetrate her vagina especially. The probing of the vagina that you have spoken of does not coincide and therefore lends itself to the second person present.... Now that you have brought up sex, the issue of her bed clothes arises. She was stripped of the bottom half of her clothing. If she was found with those items replaced, they were replaced prior to the last person who left. I recall thermal long underwear atop her lovely knickers. This leads me to the next subject - souvenirs. It makes no sense at all that anyone would consider a broken paint brush handle to be a souvenir no matter where it had been. Her knickers would have been a good example. Her hair another. Her entire body would have been the best one.

I want to ask you to do something for me. Go through your house and find a red pen. Then call up a friend and have them look for a red pen in their house. When you find someone who can find one readily in their home, let me know what their profession is. The real person to ask to participate in this exercise would be the Ramseys though I know they would not. This is pertinent to the case.

I dislike talking about the case. I know you love it and it is what you are here to do. I could so educate you about loving little girls in a sexual way which could help you in this case.

Unfortunately, I can also talk about this case as I know it well.

To deviate from all this talk of death, I love JonBenet. She seems always to be with me. When I was in the Alps of Austria, she was speaking to me. When I was walking the streets of Paris and London, she walked with me. But nothing can replace the essence of her true physical self. A body I wish to cherish once more is forever buried.

Within an E-mail dated March 31, 2006 bearing a time of 3:37 AM MST, titled, "Sentimental Objects", "December1996@hushmail.com" mentions in the body of the message, "...I have something on my mind that I must share. You refer to "souvenirs". It is not at all the correct term to be used. It must be referred to as a sentimental object removed" The writer adds, "I recall she was wearing a gold bracelet that night with the name JonBenet engraved on it. It was a Christmas gift. Do you know who gave it to her? The bracelet would have been priceless to anyone who would want to take something as a piece of sentiment. I recall her hair was held in place with hair ties or some sort. Those hair ties would have been something to take along with her hair. Her knickers were of great value to me. I cherish little girls' knickers of all kinds, especially of little girls 8 and younger and she was six.

Your affiant determined through an interview conducted with John Ramsey on May 16, 2006, the aforementioned bracelet bearing the name of JonBenet was a Christmas gift provided by John and Patsy Ramsey to their daughter. It should be noted, the autopsy report prepared by Dr. John Meyers, described the "ID" bracelet, including the name of "JonBenet" appearing on one side of an engraved plate and the date of "12-25-96" appearing on the opposite. Additionally the "hair ties" found in the hair of JonBenet, were also described in the autopsy report.

Mr. Tracey received an E-mail from December1996@hushmail.com on April 2, 2006 at 5:09 AM MST, titled, "JonBenet/Wednesday, the writer responds to a statement previously posed by Mr. Tracey, in which Mr. Tracey mentions, "Your reference to the red pen intrigues me". Mr. Tracey is referring to the red colored ink mark on the palm of JonBenet Ramsey's left palm. The unidentified writer responds with, "Yes, it has all to do with the red heart drawn on JonBenet's left hand. I am not sure I am prepared to see photos of JonBenet-post mortem. I had quite a collection of photos of her alive when I was in the U.S. I also had a few of her funeral. In the raid on my house, law enforcement found all of them...."

The unknown writer also mentions in the April 2, 2006 message his desire to have physical relationships with young girls. The writer notes, "... The end of nine years old is usually the stopping point for me due to the physical height and development of the child. In some parts of the world, however, I have been highly attracted to girls who are 12 though they were the size of girls 8 in the US. I cannot say I was actually attracted to the 12 year olds but it was a little more tempting. I am attracted to dolls. When they get past the doll stage, I am no longer physically attracted..."

0.55 NO_REAL_NAME From: does not include a real name
Michael,

I am so glad that you proved me wrong and responded promptly. It is very important to the flow of our conversation.

I can understand your frustration with the performance of your students. It is a sad commentary that many college level students are virtually unable to write. I teach writing to children as young as 6. Even a picture drawn with a sentence written underneath is important in starting the process of creative writing with confidence. As the children get older, I encourage the keeping of journals as well as the teaching writing techniques and constant practice of published works with encouragement to boldly express in writing. This is not common practice in American schools. It does explain why you are faced with the poor prospect and inability to write well.

>All my comments on their papers by the way done with a red pen.
Ah yes, the almighty best companion to all teachers - sometimes, the sword.

>But enough of my woes.

I love hearing about you and your life and career. Please don't hesitate.

>Are you saying that you would like to contact the Ramseys. Would you like me to try and arrange it?

Of course, I would like to reconnect with the Ramseys. The main reason, however, for my question is that I feel the killers need to have up to date contact information for the Ramseys. If in the unlikely event that one of them might wish to make a confession, it would be made to Patsy Ramsey and not to you or to law enforcement. If I could just keep up to date on their whereabouts and contact information, this would keep a live link between them and the killers. I think it might be the single most important factor in this matter. The Ramseys have two addresses in Atlanta. The following is from my memory. None of this is written down. My last contact for them there was 4070 Paces Ferry Road, Atlanta, GA 30327. I have been to that home several times. It was located down and across the street from Lovett School where Burke attended and I have connections. I know that they had a vacation home in Charlevoix, Michigan where I presume they are now. I once had that address but did not memorize it nor did I visit it.

>I have both phone numbers and e-mail addresses. I have no idea what >their reaction would be. I'm sure you can understand that what >happened to JonBenet is still deeply painful.

You might recall that we tried this once before in that I wrote a letter to the Ramseys and sent it to an e-mail address you provided. I do not have those addresses anymore but recall that one belonging to John Ramsey was an "N" number for an old Beechcraft airplane he once owned. I would like all the contact information you might have for the Ramseys. The information would be guarded and most likely not accessed. I do understand that their situation is still sensitive as well as the added illness of Patsy. I respect that. However, it is very important that certain parties have access to contact information at all times. I, personally, would never be able to call them or to write a letter and send it to them in the mail as this would pinpoint my location. On the other hand, I travel extensively at times and might consider something during a stop over. It would always be with all due respect. I love JonBenet's mother, especially and would never do anything to remotely upset her. I would surely appreciate it if you could help me with that. Please know I would honor the information and keep it in the safest secret place.

>It's amazing that she's still alive. If there is something in particular you want to tell her I wonder how much time there is >left to do so.

That is very sad indeed. She is the key to the contact with the killers due the fact that she is JonBenet's mother.

>I've been thinking about your fascination with, and sexual desire >for, young girls, "dolls," as you describe them, pre-pubescent, no >breasts, no pubic hair, smooth skin, small, malleable, vulnerable.
>Correct?

Not at all.... The little girls I have been attracted to have all been very dominant. I am more vulnerable than they have been. This has nothing to do with controlling a weaker person. I see certain little girls as very powerful. Doll refers to the perfect image.

>And sure, i've been to Far East many times and can see >how girls there who were slightly older would nevertheless appear >younger.

I was referring to certain Latinas, not far eastern girls.

>But what then is the twist with young teens and yes do please tell me >more about this.

Although I mentioned to you an ex-wife in my last letter without your response, it does tell you that I have at least been married once if not more. On any occasion when I did marry, the girl was a teen. Teens are the closest one can come to marrying a child. Teens can look childlike but also have the capacity to allow penetrative sex. There is much more to this facet of my life.

>Also, I'm still extremely interested in you educating me about sex >with young girls in a way that would help me better understand this >case.

I have had sex with teens and I have had sex with little girls. The experience is unreal and limited. This is what fuels the sexual frustration. The frustration is unreal. Most of my life has been celibate. In every case where I have had a sexual or romantic relationship with a little girl, 10 or younger, I have gone straight to the mother and revealed my feelings and actions. Their reactions might surprise you. I can assure you that all my relationships were in honor to the little girl to please her and not to please me.

>By the way i appreciate you not pushing me on my reference to the >death of a child in my case. It is something that i find difficult >to even think of without crying.

But you must also know that I am here in case you might want to talk about it. It is important not to forget as I know you never will. Let me tell you that you are very lucky to have your other children with you.

>ps. I'm assuming that red pens can be souvenirs as well?
Not so much. I was merely trying to explain something pertinent to the case.

I hope to hear from you soon. Remember, please don't quote and send back my letter at the end of your letter. Thank you.

Often, throughout the four year exchange of E-mails "Decmeber1996@hushmail.com" will repeat information previously provided. Such was the case on April 4, 2006. The writer sent two (2) E-mails to Michael Tracey, each E-mail bore a date of April 4, 2006 and a time of 5:00:59 AM MST. Each E-mail was titled, "JonBenet / Contact is Imperative". The content of the second E-mail contains much of the same verbiage as was noted in the first E-mail dated April 4, 2006. However, within the second E-mail dated April 4, 2006, the unidentified writer responds to a question posed by Michael Tracey that did not appear in the first E-mail dated April 4, 2006. Mr. Tracey had previously informed the unidentified writer that he (Tracey) was authoring his second book on the death of JonBenet Ramsey and mentioned the need of the writer to cooperate with him. Mr. Tracey asks, "What is it that you and only you can tell the reader about the crime that would astonish them and prove that you know things that others don't?"

"December 1996@hushmail.com replies in the second E-mail dated April 4, 2006, "I have no desire to astonish anyone. That would make me a sensationalist. I have some things to say but have no idea if it has been published or not. I do not read published information about the case. I cannot bear it. I never could."

Tracey inquires why the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) focused on the writer in a prior homicide. "December 1996@hushmail.com" replies in the second April 4, 2006 E-mail, "It seems that I confided in a person about JonBenet and my love for little girls who turned out to be an informant. She recorded our phone conversations and met me with a wire on. It was pure deceit. I suspected it all along and even accused her of it several times. I had a weak moment and wanted to talk about JonBenet to someone. I chose the wrong person. It cost me everything. I hate myself for having met this person and further sharing things with her.

FURTHERMORE:

Her body (the 12 year old) was found within walking distance of my home in the state I resided in at the time. It was this unreal fact that lead law enforcement to really hone in on me. Her home was a city 20 miles or so away from my own city.

ADDITIONALLY;

I revealed information about JonBenet Ramsey that spurred an investigation. I am a teacher who has contact with thousands of little girls as well. It was not just JonBenet and the 12 year old. It was much more. There were other little girls involved and other charges."

Mr. Tracey received an E-mail on April 7, 2006 at 4:36 AM, MST, titled, "JonBenet/I Love Her", "December 1996@hushmail.com" writes, "Thanks for everything Michael. I have been thinking of the possibilities of writing with you. I think it is important that the world reads my words. You have the power to present my words to the world. I am prepared to seriously talk to you about the possibilities."

In an April 8, 2006 E-mail received by Mr. Tracey at 4:15 AM, MST, December1996@hushmail.com writes in response to a question posed by Michael Tracey in which Mr. Tracey asks;

"THE OTHER THING I WAS WONDERING WAS WHETHER SHE WAS HOGTIED AS PART OF THE RITUAL.

AFFIDAVIT FOR ARREST WARRANT
JOHN MARK KARR
DOB/12-11-64

The reply is:

I am not sure what that expression means. I will reveal one more fact to you that I do not believe you know. She was in the vertical position during the asphyxiation "ritual". Ritual is not really a proper term to use in the sense that you know as the definition of ritual. The asphyxiation was sexual and some sex acts are considered, ritual. The other fact is that she was not necessarily in the vertical position for the asphyxiation "ritual" in the same area she was found in. I proposition you to revisit photos of that area and see if you can detect possible places she could have been placed in the vertical position OR the impossibilities of such. And one more revelation: the killers left at different times.

December1996@hushmail.com writes in an E-mail received April 15, 2006 at 4:41 AM MST, titled, "JonBenet / Near Death", his understanding of the Modus Operandi utilized in the death of JonBenet Ramsey. The writer mentions "two distinct personalities, one was romantic and passionate. The other more pragmatic and violent which leads to the end result - one I do not like to think about." The writer also describes how JonBenet was placed in a vertical hanging position with her wrists tied together. Pressure was applied to her neck to deprive her of oxygen, causing "a dream like state." Sexual activity then was carried out, including the delivery of kisses then more asphyxia to heighten the sexual pleasure. Then pressure to her neck was released slowly. Following is the entire E-mail received on April 15, 2006. The "D" appearing at the end of the message refers to this initial which the writer often has ended his message with in the past. The writer later ended his e-mail messages with the name of DAXIS.

Michael,

Thank you so much for your response. I know you are busy but please try to stay in close contact with me. Thank you for your explanation of why you do not respond to much of what I write. Just remember that nothing I say is symbolic. It is factual just as my responses in this letter shall be. Read carefully.

I have been thinking of that horrible night so much lately. It went away quite a bit when you and I did not talk for over a year. Now, it is all back. It is shouting at me.

"I DO UNDERSTAND HOWEVER THAT YOU KNOW IN GREAT DETAIL WHAT HAPPENED THAT NIGHT, AND SO DOES SOMEONE ELSE WHO I AM ASSUMING IS FEMALE."

Thank you for that acknowledgement. This helps me to carry on with this. It is not easy for me. It is horrible for me.

"I'M ALSO ASSUMING THAT, IN LIGHT OF YOUR COMMENT THAT THEY LEFT AT DIFFERENT TIMES, IT WAS THE WOMAN WHO LEFT FIRST."

That is not necessarily true though I would rather comment on this later so as not to completely incriminate myself. The modus operandi has two distinct personalities. One was romantic and passionate. The other was more pragmatic and violent which leads to the end result - one I do not like to think about.

"SO I ASK MYSELF, WHY."

Because the two, at a certain point, did not see eye to eye.

"THE INTENT WAS TO TAKE JONBENET OUT OF THE HOUSE."

It was? That is an obvious answer. But is it the true answer. I am going to reveal something to you about myself. Had I wanted to take JonBenet, I would have. Over a decade earlier, I saw a lovely 12 year old girl I wanted. In her case, no one had to retrieve her from her bed as they did JonBenet. She arose from her bed while her parents slept and came to me. I took her. And so I have experience taking little girls from their houses in the middle of the night.

"THAT WOULD OFFER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR MUCH MORE EXTENDED

"PLAYTIME," AND WE BOTH KNOW THAT DRAWN OUT SEX WITH HER WAS VERY MUCH PART OF THE PLAN."

How would you know what the plan was? what would the killers do with her had they taken her?

"FOR REASONS THAT I AM NOT CLEAR ABOUT THAT DIDN'T WORK OUT, SO THE SEX AND THE TORTURE HAD TO BE DONE THERE BECAUSE THERE WAS NO WAY THIS WASN'T GOING TO HAPPEN"

We must cure ourselves of this word torture. It was a sexual act. I could explain it to you. I shall explain a facet of it - the main core. She was asphyxiated, that you know. Do you know how? She was placed in a vertical hanging position, by the wrist in a more elaborate way than you might think. She would never be placed in a lying down position as this would cause blood to travel in more abundance to the head. Slow pressure was applied to her neck until oxygen was gradually deprived. Had it been quicker, she would have struggled. If done correctly, she would be in a dream state, much as one is during hyperventilation - which is exactly what it is. The pressure remains while sexual activity is being carried out on her - while the deliverer kisses her. In many, the asphyxia heightens sexual pleasure. The pressure is constant until the little girl passes out or comes near death. This takes two or three minutes. Then, the pressure is released slowly. This is the critical point. If the pressure is carried on for two or three minutes more, the little girl can die. The goal is to bring her near death - not to kill her. It takes consummate skill to know just when that time has elapsed. The deliverer is not using a stop watch. Two to three minutes depends on the age of the girl and the way the pressure is delivered. Five minutes can be deadly. The deliverer must know from signs in her face, for instance, when to stop delivering pressure. It is a difference of a mere two to three minutes from near death to certain death. That was a horror to write. I hope it means something to you.

"THER NEED TO KISS HER KNECK, FEET AND TO HAVE ORAL SEX WITH HER WAS OVERWHELMING. THE ULTIMATE FULFILLMENT OF THE FANTASY."

The ultimate fulfillment of the fantasy was the whole picture - the sexual asphyxia, the contact with her sex, the kissing of her neck and feet and other parts of her body. It was a symphony.

"THEN SHE HAD TO BE KILLED BECAUSE SHE KNEW WHO HER KILLER WAS, DIDN'T SHE?"

That is not the reason for her death. Her death was not intended.

"I WAS SURPRISED WHEN YOU TOLD ME THAT YOU HAD BEEN THE SUBJECT OF PHONE TAPPING."

I was under state and federal investigation for murder. Why would you be surprised?

"I'M STILL TRYING TO ORGANIZE A WAY FOR YOU TO TALK TO THEM."

I need their address, e-mail contact and a land line phone number. I will not respond to a set up meeting. This is prime for law enforcement to eaves drop.

"I BELIEVE I MAY HAVE AN ANSWER ON THIS BY THE MIDDLE OF NEXT WEEK - THOUGH OBVIOUSLY I CAN'T PROMISE THAT THEY WILL BE AGREEABLE."

They won't be.

"I WILL HOWEVER DO MY VERY BEST TO PERSUADE THEM."

Just tell them that someone close to JonBenet would like to have their contact information. We wish them no harm. Tell them that the information will be held in confidence. They should expect contact at an unexpected time.

"I AM NOT SURE THOUGH WHY TALKING TO THE KILLERS WOULD BE THEIR

"LUCKY DAY."

You said it would relieve them from being a suspect. And it would not be their lucky day? Do they not also seek closure?

"AND IF THE CALL CAME THROUGH, WOULD IT BE AN APOLOGY, A TAUNT, AN EXPLANATION? I KNOW THAT THEY ARE DESPERATE TO KNOW THE ANSWER TO THE MOST PROFOUND QUESTION OF ALL, "WHY."

We have no intention to taunt the Ramseys. I love that family - especially JonBenet's mother. It would be similar to how I talk to you.

"AND WHAT DOES THIS MEAN: Patsy's information is key. I wish I could tell YOU EVERYTHING AT ONCE BUT I CAN'T."

I should have written "Patsy's contact information". She is the person I wish to have contact with.

"RE THE STUN GUN, I WAS CREDITING YOU. SOMEHOW, YOUR DESCRIPTION, BASED ON YOUR KNOWLEDGE, NOT SURMISE, MADE SENSE."

Thank you. Just know that she was taken from her bed in the way I described.

In an April 17, 2006 E-mail received by Mr. Tracey at 10:58 AM MST, titled "JonBenet's Mother", December1996@hushmail writes, "JonBenet's mother lives at 213 Elm Street, Charlevoix, Michigan 49720-1137. I believe I will be sitting in their living room before I get the phone number and E-Mail contacts I requested..." It should be noted the street address indicated by the writer i.e., 213 Elm Street, is a correct address of the Ramsey family, however this address is located in a different city than Charlevoix, Michigan.

An April 19, 2006 received by Michael Tracey at 4:52 AM MST, titled, "JonBenet/My Lover", December1996@hushmail.com writes, "There was a dance in the act performed with JonBenet but also a dance between two killers - one male and one female. The male is not necessarily the dominant one nor the violent one..." The writer also includes the following verbiage in the same E-mail, "...Yes, I am aware of the blunt trauma to her head. It was the worst of the end result. It went against all that I believed in because it tarnished my princess. Blood in small quantities is a different matter such as blood from her hot little cunt that I so wish I could drink at this very moment. But the trauma to her head haunts me - so horrible. An act committed to assure that she would not be alone, dying a slow death."

The writer again includes the aforementioned residential address of Patsy and John Ramsey, this being, 213 Elm Street, Charlevoix, Michigan.

Crime scene photographs taken of JonBenet Ramsey at the scene on December 26, 1996 in addition to autopsy photographs revealed no visible exterior trauma to the head. During the autopsy procedure performed by Dr. John E. Meyer M.D., an 8.5 inch fracture to the right side of the victim's skull was revealed.

Michael,

In your last two responses to me, you are continuing to place the entirety of my mail at the foot. Please do not do this?

I am glad to finally hear from you. I understand how work can cause a delay. I do get frustrated when I really pour out to you and then wait for days after multiple requests for your response. I find it nice that you refer to your students as munchkins. Aren't those college kids big though?

"But on to matters that I do accept in any real sense are vastly more important, the comments in this message."

I thank you for that acknowledgement.

"When you say that remembering the details of that night are you suggesting that you feel guilt, remorse, what?"

It is difficult to relive the details of JonBenet's death. It hurts me to talk about the things that happened to my wonderful little girl. Of course, I feel more sorry than you could know that she is dead. It is one of the things I would like to express to her mother though this opportunity will never come. Even you have started ignoring the possibilities. The events of that night had a horrible outcome. It is difficult to recall them. It would be more difficult for you to read if I were to be more graphic.

"I noted that you comment that there were two paradoxical elements to the events of that night, one romantic, the other violent. This reminded me of something you said a long time ago when you wrote that the killing of JonBenet was an act of love, of possession.

This also fits with your description of the whole thing as a "symphony." The "end result," presumably was her death."

There was a dance in the act performed with JonBenet but also a dance between the two killers - one male and one female. The male is not necessarily the dominant one nor the violent one. The end result must have been my reference to JonBenet's death. It is taken out of context; therefore, I cannot say.

"I'm assuming also that the 12 year old girl who came to you of her own accord was the same one about which you were investigated - though I also assume that you will say no."

If I say no, it will mean just that - no. Michael, you are now entering that mode of listening where you think I am saying something that is the opposite of what I mean. This is not the case. The 12 year old girl who came to me - the one I described in the paragraph where I tell you that I could have taken JonBenet from her house as I have done in the past, was NOT the 12 year old girl I was investigated over for murder. I told you that I did not kill the 12 year old girl in the investigation. That has nothing to do with a girl who left her bed and came with me. It happened in a different part of the U.S. There are two different 12 year old girls. Do you understand now? The story of the 12 year old who came to me is a very interesting story with an unreal outcome. I can tell you if you are interested. I will be fairly insulted if you are not interested as it is an aspect of my personal life.

"And had the killers taken JonBenet they would have, as I suggested, played with her at length."

Had that happened, she would have been treated like a daughter. Yes, she would have been the object of more intense love and worship. I would give anything to have her with me at six, alas, she would now be nearing sweet sixteen. Instead, she is forever six though not preserved as I would have wanted it. It would have been my wish that she had not had a blemish on her when she was laid to rest in her lovely wooden casket. What I would not have given to have crawled in beside her in that casket and made love to her once more.

"As for your description of the nature of the asphyxiation I once more appreciate your candour."

The thing that this description is missing is the passion and sex. It is missing the many kisses and unreal lust that accompanies such an act. The cravings for so much of her as she is in this euphoric state that leads me into a state of euphoria. To be that close to a little girl in an act so intense is beyond description. It would have been sweeter yet to have had the chance to pierce her neck and sensually suck her luscious blood - that her life, her supreme being would then live in me forever. Not to give me life but to permit me to have her inside me - to partake of such a deity - a Goddess.

"This is you will understand not something I know very much about - I've never even been into auto-erotic asphyxiation whatever the amplified quality of the orgasm. However, the detail you describe, the question of timing, of noting facial expression sounds to me as if one would have had to have considerable practice - c'est vrai?"
Oui.... I did not mention that the process of placing pressure on her neck is repeated once she regained consciousness again. Timing is critical. This was when the tragedy began. Seconds easily turn into minutes in the heat of passion. The deliverer, deriving unreal pleasure both emotionally and sexually, can lose track of that critical time. Especially with a little girl who is small and more fragile, it is easier to lose her. JonBenet was lost, or so it was believed. Yes, I am aware of the blunt trauma to her head. It was the worst of the end result. It went against all that I believed in because it tarnished my princess. Blood in small quantities is a different matter such as the blood from her hot little cunt that I so wish I could drink at this very moment. But the trauma to her head haunts me - so horrible. An act committed to assure that she would not be alone, dying a slow painful death.

"I'm also assuming that you are telling me that there was never any intent to remove her from the house."

Please don't assume that. In the heat of passion, all is possible. It is likely that had she not succumbed to the sexual asphyxia and had lived, she might have been taken.

"believe it or not I tend to believe you on things like this. It feels accurate."

You "tend" to believe me.... Sometimes, on very remote occasions, I wonder why I am writing to you and if you believe anything I say and why I am still here talking to you.

Is there any reason why you did not respond to my letter repeated below, entitled, "JonBenet's Mother"? I take it as a bad sign. I sent this two days ago. Please read it carefully again:

JonBenet's mother lives at 213 Elm Street, Charlevoix, Michigan 49720-1137. I believe I will be sitting in her living room before I get the phone number and e-mail contacts I requested. I feel sometimes like I am begging. I certainly did not have to beg my contacts to get this home address. I now only need the phone number that is attached to this address as well as e-mail addresses for John and Patsy Ramsey, especially her. I had these e-mail addresses and have asked you over and over about them and still no response from you. In one letter, I gave parts of the e-mail addresses without as much as a word from you. Again, they are N(a series of numbers)@aol.com and voyager@adelphia.net. The first I am certain belongs to John Ramsey. I don't know why I am bothering about this contact information. I feel it is useless.

I hope to hear from you soon. I know you are busy but please try to make time for JonBenet and me.

Michael,
The whole matter of JonBenet has been roaring through my head. The reason I want prompt responses from you is due in part to the fact that I cannot wait to get things off my chest about her - to write about her; to think about her. Oh how I love her. She haunts me, you know. She is consistently by my side, reminding me. I can't get her voice out of my head; her face; her eyes.... Those green eyes....

I have a lot on my mind at this moment with only minutes to write them to you. I thought of something I wanted to tell you that I am sure I have told you in the past. It involves kisses. The police were so dumbfounded over the fact that they thought JonBenet was killed by a hater, they never dreamed they should check the body for DNA evidence left by all the kisses on her body that night. Kisses..... I am a romantic person. I am very passionate and terribly sentimental. Let me explain the kiss as it happens with living little girls. It happens easiest when she sits on my lap, with her back facing me. Her beautiful hair and neck are now close to my yearning lips. I start always by leaning forward and nuzzling into her beautiful hair, if it is long. Then, I start collecting her hair from the front to the back until I pull her hair away from her neck. Her neck is a very erotic and pretty part. I then start kissing her neck softly and sensually starting at the base of her neck and the top of her shoulder. I then kiss back until I have kissed her neck all the way to the back. The kisses then travel down her back, if it is bare. No little girl I have ever done this with has ever tried to stop me or has gotten up during the process. The only bad is that I never get to see her facial expressions. I have done this hundreds of times. Kisses..... When I visited JonBenet's grave, I always said my goodbye to her by leaning to her gravestone and kissing her name, JonBenet, engraved there. I doubt anyone else has ever done that but I always did. Kisses...

>THERE IS INDEED A GOOD DEAL OF MATERIAL IN YOUR LETTERS, THOUGH I >ACCEPT THAT I SOMETIMES MAY NOT "SEE" EVERYTHING.

You mustn't miss a single thing I say. It is all very important. whatever it takes, please see everything. Please.

>I THINK THERE IS EVERY CHANCE YOU WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO >EXPRESS YOUR FEELINGS TO HER.

I hope with all my heart that you are right and that I am wrong. When I read your words, it almost brought tears to my eyes to think that I might be given a chance to communicate with JonBenet's mother.

I know John must be a very wonderful man. I just don't feel comfortable talking to him about this. I need to connect with her mother. I would not turn him away. It is difficult to talk to you about JonBenet and it is not meant to offend. If he would want to talk, I would love to have the opportunity though I do not think the results would be the same as if I talked to her mother.

>SINCE I READ YOUR DESCRIPTION OF THE SEX AND THE ASPHYXIATION I'VE >BEEN TRYING TO IMAGINE A SIX YEAR OLD IN THIS ECSTATIC AND >EUPHORIC STATE.

I could describe it. It is not like an adult.

Yes, little girls are much more uninhibited in almost every way. They are uninhibited with how they approach sex and interaction in general. In simple terms, little girls pop into my lap and give me kisses. Big girls don't do that. Little girls ride on my back and shoulders. Big girls don't. Then there is sexual inhibitions that surpass adults by a long shot. I used to have sex with a lovely little eight year old girl who would shock me most of the time. One day, while we were fooling around and she was totally naked, she fetched some rope and wanted me to tie her wrists. I was surprised. I did it and it felt fantastic. She loved it. She had no hangups. She just knew what she wanted and I gave it to her. We communicated nonverbally as she did not speak one word of English.

>I WOULD VERY MUCH LIKE TO HEAR IN DETAIL YOUR STORY OF THE >EXPERIENCE WITH THE 12 YEAR OLD AND THE NATURE OF THE "UNREAL >OUTCOME.

I have written a page about it already but I am hesitate to send it. I know you want to know. I will send it. I promise.

>INTENSE SEX, DEATH AND MERCY, ALL AT THE SAME TIME. A VERY UNUSUAL >COMBINATION.

It wasn't planned to be a combination at all.

>YOU ALREADY KNOW THE FEMALE YOU WANT TO TALK TO, PATSY.

Indeed it is JonBenet's mommy I want to talk to the most. Not just for me but for her. I want to tell her once and for all, "You didn't do anything to harm your little girl. You were the best mommy in the world for her. You spent special time with her at the pageants and took care of her needs as she grew. The world will come to know, through these new revelations that you had nothing to do with the death of your child. You are good and wonderful and still loved by your precious little girl who awaits her mother in paradise. As she loves you, I too love you very much as I loved your daughter, JonBenet." I want to be close to her - to help her connect with me through our mutual connection with JonBenet.

>I DO SUSPECT HOWEVER THAT THERE ARE COUNTLESS WOMEN OUT THERE

>WHO WOULD LOVE TO HEAR YOUR ACCOUNT.

Yes, one was willing to listen and was provided a wire from the Department of Justice to cause my downfall and launch a nationwide investigation that destroyed my life.

Thank you, Michael. It means the world to me.

>TELL ME THE WHOLE STORY, EVERYTHING. I AM PARTICULARLY DRAWN TO

>YOUR OBSERVATION THAT SHE WAS THE KINKIEST YOUNG GIRL YOU HAVE MET. >HOW SO? QUITE AMAZING.

My time has run out again. I am not doing this on purpose. The mail in already written. I just need to change some things to protect the innocent....and the guilty. Mostly the guilty, myself, needs the protection.

Michael,

The following is not easy to write. I will do my best. Please read it carefully. This is further evidence to disprove intent. It is very important to me to achieve this. The ligature, I have already disproven as a premeditative measure with the intent to kill. Now it is time to reveal further evidence to disprove intent or premeditation regarding the fatal blow to her head. I will be brief due the painfulness in recounting the events of her death. It would be thought that a killer would have brought a weapon with the intent to strike JonBenet in the head. This was not the case at all. There was no baton or bat used in this instance. The killer was in the middle of the sexual asphyxia when he felt that JonBenet might not be breathing upon release of pressure on her neck. Further, he could feel no pulse in her neck. Minutes passed and still no sign of life. It was a deep fear of his that she might be in a state of severe coma that resembled death. Knowing that minutes were passing rapidly, many things went through his head. If he leaves, she might revive and suffer, which was never intended. There was no suffering up to this point and it was not his intent that she should suffer without him. The other fear is that she might survive with sustained brain damage which was a heart breaking thought for a princess like JonBenet. with all these thoughts racing through his head, he did the unthinkable. while JonBenet was still suspended vertically by her wrists, the killer made certain that her head was hanging forward. He used what was close at hand and an item brought with him - a large flashlight. He knew that the strike must be delivered with great force and preciseness so that it would not have to be repeated and would cause minimal damage and bleeding. The killer raised the heavy flashlight high and struck down with enormous force. There was no intent to do this before his arrival at the house at 755. No weapon was used, only the flashlight he brought to use instead of lights in the basement and in the house.

That was most unpleasant. I did not think I could get through it but always knew I would finally have to reveal that to you. The flashlight went with the killer when he left. There is more, always. This is a very important piece to this elaborate puzzle. To me, it is not elaborate at all.

Please respond to all three of my letters.

On April 30, 2006, Michael Tracey forwarded an untitled E-mail at 9:51 AM MST he received from December1996@hushmail.com to Lou Smit who in turn forwarded the message to your affiant's attention. In the body of this E-mail the writer states, ..."Please add to this that we have talked for four years and that I was in no hurry to tell you anything that would lead you to believe I was a killer which proves I was not seeking overnight notoriety. I only revealed corroborating evidence to prove that I was present on the night of her death in the last several weeks..." Michael Tracey wrote the first paragraph of the E-mail.

The aforementioned E-mail follows:

So, is this the confession? BTW, every so often I like to throw in a little bit of personal information or get a little maudlin. He seems to like that. Hence the reference to drinking. It makes him think he knows me and that i like him. I think I was a con artist in a previous life. m

Dear Michael,

After all the frustration and upset I felt with you last week, your last mails are exactly how I wish you would respond to me always. First of all, don't write to me when you are drinking. I know all about drinking and how it changes you. I drink too. Just please promise me that you will always write as you have in these last three responses. I need you, Michael. If I cannot have you as a confident, I must find someone who can be a confident. I cannot bear keeping this inside any longer.

I am in the process of responding to two other mails. I wanted to respond to your idea of presentation of me to the Ramseys. I accept that your suggestions as you have written them are excellent suggestions, if you talk to them directly. None of this relaying through friends of the Ramseys. Yes, I would like for you to tell them that a person you feel strongly to be JonBenet's killer (I hate that term) "WISHES TO SPEAK TO THEM, TO EXPLAIN WHAT HAPPENED THAT NIGHT AND TO EXPLAIN ALSO THAT THERE WAS NEVER ANY INTENTION TO KILL HER." And yes, "ASKING FOR NOT JUST UNDERSTANDING BUT FORGIVENESS" is important though I do not expect that. This is mostly for them. It is my deep desire to make an ongoing connection with JonBenet's mother. I wish her no harm. Concerning their fear that this might be a hoax, I would appreciate if you state "IT IS MY STRONG JUDGMENT - CORRECTION, THAT I KNOW - THAT THIS IS NOT A HOAX, THAT THE COMMUNICATION SHOULD BE TAKEN VERY SERIOUSLY." Please add to this that we have talked for four years and that I was in no hurry to tell you anything that would lead you to believe I was a killer which proves I was not seeking overnight notariety. I only revealed corroborating evidence to prove that I was present on the night of her death in the last several weeks. Tell them I respect them. I wish them no harm. I wish myself no harm as well. I ask for their promise to not contact law enforcement or any outside sources to monitor our correspondence. Although I want telephone contacts, I will only respond instantly to an e-mail address belonging to Patsy Ramsey though John can also read and respond. Tell them I loved JonBenet so much. I love her still. I am so sorry for her death. It is my wish to give them a sense of closure - to let them know how JonBenet died and that it was not as they think. I love her so much. I need to be with her mother.

JOHN MARK KARR

That is it. I will respond to the other mails and hope the Ramseys will respond. No harm or disrespect is ever intended. If you wish to read my above message to them, please feel free. Thank you, Michael, for your help in this matter and for your thoughtful response today.

Contained within an E-mail dated May 1, 2006 and received at 4:46 AM MST titled, "JonBenet's Parents", authored by December1996@hushmail.com the writer mentions he had blocked out thoughts for 10 years that are resurfacing. The writer adds, "I want to discuss the book and our collaboration. There must be some way we can manage it." Near the mid portion of the E-mail, the writer explains the duct tape covering the mouth of JonBenet, was "part of the kidnapping diversion that would coincide with the note." The writer also mentions, the duct tape was "placed on her mouth just prior to the fatal blow" to prevent blood from escaping from her mouth." The tape was not in place during the sexual encounter, according to the writer. The writer also notes, "JonBenet had a runny nose the night of her death. Did you read about that in the news?? Would you like to know more about that? Or have you "read about it" already?? Fucking Press. Fucking Law Enforcement."

0.55 NO_REAL_NAME From: does not include a real name
Michael,

I continue to work on responses to the last few of your letters to me. I want to continue to write to you about the contact with the Ramseys. hank you for a thoughtful letter once more. The more I share with you, the closer we become as friends, I hope. I tend to think that we will be working together for awhile. I feel that you wish to release the book by the tenth anniversary of JonBenet's death. Don't press yourself with such a deadline. If we do this together, it will not be so much pressure on just you. You already have all my writings for the past four years.

>I'M NOT DRINKING. YOU ARE VERY PERCEPTIVE ABOUT HOW IT CHANGES ME.

I didn't realize it until you told me. At times, I thought I was talking to at least three different people. It caused me to doubt. I thought at times that I was talking to your student assistants. I drink as well. My drinking is highly monitored. I drank last night, a limited amount, but stayed up until almost 2 AM running through my head what I might say to the Ramseys.

>I UNDERSTAND THAT YOU NEED ME. THAT HAS BEEN VERY CLEAR
As alone and self reliant I am and have been for years since leaving the U.S., I need. You cannot know how much I have appreciated you listening to me about JonBenet. You have never doubted me nor judged me. You have never conveyed that you hate me for what I have done. I have never told you that JonBenet died at my hands. I have never told anyone that though you seemed to be able to fuse all of it together.

>DOES IT PROVIDE ANY KIND OF RELIEF? DOES SOME OF THE PRESSURE ON YOU GO?

Yes. It helps but it also rehashes things I have blocked out for almost ten years. Since leaving America, it has been easy to block things out. The international community is not familiar with JonBenet. Her name has been mentioned only by one or two Americans I have known over all these years. It panics me when the subject is brought up. I always deny knowledge of her existence and walk away...

>AND WHERE DO WANT TO TAKE IT FROM HERE?

I want to discuss the book and our collaboration. There must be some way we can manage it.

"And yes, "ASKING FOR NOT JUST UNDERSTANDING BUT FORGIVENESS" is important though I do not expect that."

>YOU SHOULD. I HAVE A STRONG FEELING THAT THE ONLY THING THAT WILL

>BRING CLOSURE FOR THEM IS FORGIVING. HATE WOULD BE THE FINAL >CONSUMPTION.

I agree with you on that totally. I want to help them heal. I want to put to rest, once and for all, that they were not responsible and should feel no guilt. There was nothing they could have done to prevent it.

>I AM GOING TO CALL JOHN THIS WEEK. I KNOW IT'S PATSY YOU REALLY >WANT TO TALK TO BUT I AM SURE YOU ALSO KNOW THAT THERE IS A PROCESS.

I understand that your connection is with John. Please emphasize to him that I must talk to his wife along with him. It is not just about Her mother. I have a feeling that he might contact law enforcement immediately. I do not get that feeling about Mrs.

Ramsey.

>YOU'VE SAID SEVERAL TIMES OVER THE PASST FOUR YEARS THAT WISH HER

>NO HARM. I DON'T KNOW ANY REASON TO THINK THAT YOU WOULD WANT TO HARM

>HER.

A mom might get that impression from a person who killed her daughter - that he might wish to return and also kill her mother. I always stress that this is not the case.

>YOU SIMPLY WANT TO EXPLAIN YOUR RELATIONSHIP TO HER DAUGHTER,

>THE EVENTS OF DECEMBER 1996 AND WHY JONBENET WAS NEVER MEANT TO >DIE.

I want that but I want an ongoing connection with her. I want to somehow connect with JonBenet's mother because I miss JonBenet. Her mother is the closest to her. She carried her in her womb. I am Catholic and pray to the Blessed Mother Mary - the Mother of Christ. I also wish for that closeness to the mother of JonBenet whom I have deified and continue to deify. I would never say this to Mrs. Ramsey... I just want you to understand.

>RATHER SHE WAS MEANT TO EXPERIENCE A DEEP KIND OF SEXUAL >EXPERIENCE THAT UNFORTUNATELY SOMEHOW GOT OUT OF CONTROL.

It was this and much more. It was done out of a deep seeded desire
I had to be close to, love and have sex with this darling little girl. It was for her and it was for me. It was to deify this Goddess. It was madness.....

>"FOUR YEARS." TRUST ME I AM TOTALLY AWARE OF THIS, HAVE ALWAYS >KNOWN IT. IN THIS DAY AND AGE OUR CORRESPONDENCE IS ARCHEOLOGICAL.

>I'VE HAD MARRIAGES THAT WERE SHORTER.

I loved this part. It actually made me laugh out loud. It is perfect. Thank you for that. Maybe no one you have married has ever shared such deep secrets with you. I must clarify that you did not have contact with me for one year while I was in Latin America.

"I need to be with her mother."

>WHAT DOES "TO BE WITH" MEAN? DO YOU MEAN THAT YOU WANT TO BE WITH >HER OR IS THE PHASE MORE METAPHORICAL.

Just a contact, a connection with her mother. I would love to meet her physically and hold her as she cries and console her. I do not think it is sexual. It is emotional and spiritual.

>I AM TRYING TO BE THOUGHTFUL.

You are doing a splendid job.

>BTW, YOU SAID THAT YOU WOULD EXPLAIN THE DUCT TAPE

Yes. It is in the other mail I am working on but I will excerpt it here. It went hand in hand with the ransom note. It was to be how JonBenet was to be found. The plan was that she would be alive, not dead. The tape was part of the "kidnapping" diversion that would coincide with the note.

"AND WHY THE NEED TO COVER HER MOUTH."

Her mouth was never covered during the sexual encounter. Her mouth and face would never be covered with something so vile as tape. And I quote, "He vaguely recalls placing tape over her mouth as a diversionary tactic and for one other purpose. Here again, you must know that no tape was on those pretty little lips during the erotic asphyxia love making. The killer is a passionate kisser." It was placed on her mouth just prior to the fatal blow. It was to prevent any blood from being lost out of her mouth in case the blow might cause this.

"DID YOU KNOW THAT THERE WAS A LOT OF SPECULATION THAT A MAGLITE CAUSED THE BLOW TO THE HEAD."

Goddamn it! This upsets me so much. I swear to God, I did not know that had been mentioned. You cannot know how frustrating this is to me. I thought I had shared something special with you and you have read about it already. Now you are going to think I was repeating something I read. Damn it to Hell.... I cannot tell you anything that the media has not published. JonBenet had a runny nose the night of her death. Did you read about that in the news?? Would you like to know more about that? or have you "read all about it" already?? Fucking press. Fucking law enforcement.

"IN FACT ONE WAS FOUND IN THE HOUSE, AND IT WAS NOTED THAT THERE WERE NO FINGERPRINTS ON IT, NOT EVEN ON THE BATTERIES INSIDE, THE WHOLE THING HAD BEEN WIPED CLEAN."

That was NOT the flashlight I spoke of. That flashlight was taken by the killer. why would he leave it behind?? It might be said that the girl left her flashlight... The killer's flashlight went with him. Tell the fucking detectives to test the flashlight left behind for blood. It would be easy. They won't find any DNA or blood. Did you read that in the news? I read NOTHING in the fucking news.

>ALSO YOU HINTED THAT YOU WOULD TELL ME YOUR NAME, BY WHICH I ASSUME >YOU MEANT YOUR FIRST NAME. THAT WOULD BE NICE. THERE IS ALWAYS >SOMETHING SLIGHTLY CURIOUS IN REPLYING TO A LETTER OF THE ALPHABET, >EVEN IF I UNDERSTAND THAT THIS WAS A PROTECTIVE NECESSITY.

I suppose I will just disappoint you with my name. I'm sorry about that. If you have problems pronouncing it, let me know and I will clarify.

Sincerely,

DAXIS

Michael Tracey forwarded another E-mail he received on May 4, 2006 at 5:12 AM MST titled, "Collective Responses of Importance" from "December1996@hushmail.com" to your affiant on the same date. Within the text of the E-mail, Michael Tracey poses a question regarding how little girls have seduced the writer. Mr. Tracey poses his question in all upper case lettering.

Tracey asks, "I ALWAYS HAVE THIS PERPLEXED FEELING ABOUT HOW LITTLE GIRLS HAVE SEDUCED YOU, INITIATED THE SEX. CAN YOU TELL ME MORE."

The unknown writer replies, "Ok Michael.... Try to put away your social programming and you might begin to understand. It is a long story that has spanned across years. I do not know where to begin. One little girl was with me on a bed once. She requested a massage. I obliged. She was lying on her stomach. She kept telling me to go lower until I reached her bottom. I hesitated. She took my hand and placed it on her bottom. I massaged her there. She would leave momentarily to go to the bathroom. She would return with her tight jeans undone and pulled lower and lower, revealing her knickers and wanted more massage in that area. She would leave for the bathroom every 5 minutes. The massage turned into me passionately kissing her from her neck down her back and over her tight ass. This went on for awhile. That first time was never my idea. I had not planned at all to be sexual with her. We eventually became very sexual. She was 8 and the girl I told you about in Europe. She was running the show, not me. I certainly felt seduced and I gave in to that seduction yet I also thought it was very adorable for a girl of 8 to act that way with me. She was demanding. Though I was also interested in romance, she would cut to the chase straight to sexual activity. She was the little girl who liked to be tied at the wrists. Again, that was her idea."

An E-mail was received by Michael Tracey on May 6, 2006 at 4:58 AM titled, "Clearing Up Misconception", from December1996@hushmail.com included in part a passage from the writer which stated, "The ransom note started with, and I suppose you recall, 'Listen Carefully!' Not 'Read Carefully' but 'Listen Carefully!' with an exclamation point. It was horrible and I regret it was aimed solely at Mr. Ramsey. However, it underscored my feelings that no one ever seems to listen to me...."

The unidentified writer adds he has waited 10 years to talk to the parents of JonBenet Ramsey. The writer states, "Again, I want their home contact number that I will place in safe keeping. I want e-mail contacts that I will respond to immediately."

Michael,

The following letter is not meant to be negative but I suppose it is. You must know that you have been a wonderful friend to me. I love you for that. I just want you to understand everything I say with perfect clarity. But we do not live in a perfect world so you misunderstand things I say.

I was pleased to get your responses but disappointed that you misunderstood so much that I said. The ransom note started with, and I suppose you recall, "Listen Carefully!" Not "Read Carefully" but "Listen Carefully!" with an exclamation point. It was horrible and I regret that it was aimed solely at Mr. Ramsey. However, it underscored my feelings that no one ever seems to listen to me. It was a pointless beginning but it might say a lot about me. Most of my life, I have been misunderstood and abused outright. My desire to be heard and understood is sometimes evident. In much of your responses here, it seems we are taking two steps back. Why?? Let me clarify and please just read carefully, no disrespect intended.. >we must find a way to reach Patsy directly. I am telling >> you, she is the key. She will talk to me. I have never had good >> luck with dads....

>Do you mean that you are upset with him because he wont >immediately respond.

On that first description of your call to him, you told me little to nothing of his response. As far as I know, he said a blank no. Listen Michael, I have waited to talk to these parents for almost 10 years. Why would you make me out to be impatient? I have a right to want to talk to him and his wife. And we have discussed the method of communication but you have obviously forgotten. Again, I want their home contact number that I will place in safe keeping. I want e-mail contacts that I will respond to immediately. Now you seem to be giving me the "phone call" ultimatum. You know calls can be traced and will give up my location. You know that... This has to also be on my terms. I know the Ramseys want to be in control but that has to be shared. I am ALSO involved.

"Light was very rare in that basement but I caught a shimmering slight stream coming from her lovely nose as I sat with her in my lap. It sent shivers all through me."

>It is interesting that she was sitting in your lap without waking >up. That's not an easy thing to achieve, but you did say that she was >a very heavy sleeper.

Go Lord Michael..... Read my messages carefully, PLEASE. That was such an intimate sharing. I specifically said "as I sat with her in my lap." I NEVER said she sat in my lap. I held her as a person holds a baby. She was in a reclining position on my lap. Remember when you held your sleeping children in your lap as they slept? These are the things that make me think that when you receive my mails, you hit the respond button, give them a quick scan and respond just below them. Is not worth reading carefully? I am sharing my most intimate moments with my most special little Princess.

"we might as well put this taser gun issue to rest as well."

I guess this might have been confusing. I fired off about this in the middle of a request to remove the girl from the equation. Since you contend with forensic evidence that a taser gun was used, how can I refute it? What can I say? I wanted to discuss it with you but it seems "the world" has already made up their minds. This is what irritates me about this case and the media attention and even forensic and police work that supercedes all else.

As for more misconceptions, I will reserve the ones about the female involvement in another mail to you. I just want to remove her from the equation. This is taking us two steps back... That is unfortunate.

"I mentioned him in a mail several weeks ago. He was a condemned child killer in the U.S. I tried to talk to him but he would not respond with anything but stupidity. He is an idiot if he is still alive."

>But I thought you said he didn't say "damned thing."

He didn't Michael..... He wrote little notes to me from prison asking me to send him money for smokes. I had asked him about his case though he asked me why should he talk to me about something like that.

>But I thought you were interested in cooperating on a book. I don't know where this came from. You know I want this. Now that you brought it up, I think you should write a book about me. I think you should title it DAXIS with a small subtitle beneath referencing JonBenet. I think you should insert your commentary and interject the writings you have already done that revolve around the case. It would be the true cowriting experience. So there, I said it. It is what should be done. It was fate that we met. It was in the cards. It is up to you, as the prolific killer said to me. "What am I going to do with say, their correspondences with me - with their words?"

>DO YOU MEAN YOU HAVE ALREADY BEEN IN CORRESPONDENCE WITH THEM. No, I have not. It was a question of what would I do with their words in the future after we talk. That is enough of that. You are a best friend to me, Michael. I am not being critical of you or of your perception of me. I am only clearing up some confusion. Now I will respond to the rest of your mails to me. I wanted to get this negativity out of the way.

DAXIS

Michael Tracey received another E-mail on May 6, 2006 at 7:43 AM MST, titled, "Intimate Moments" from "December 1996@hushmail.com". Mr. Tracey writes:

"...What becomes clear is that a kind of gentle touching, particularly with your tongue, is something that you find profoundly erotic."

December1996@hushmail.com responds, "That was not the important part. The fact that I drank her for the first time and it made me want her blood was the purely erotic and important theme."

Mr. Tracey received another E-mail from December1996@hushmail.com on May 7, 2006 at 4:54 AM MST titled, "Last of the Series". The message is unusually lengthy. The writer states, "In conclusion, I wish to take full responsibility for all events that occurred that night..."

The writer mentions the potential success of the book Michael Tracey is writing on the death of JonBenet Ramsey including the information DAXIS is providing. The writer mentions his father was concerned over the numerous trips 'DAXIS' made to JonBenet Ramsey's gravesite.

The writer also states, "It was an intimate love affair for me. It was my secret and JonBenet's secret. They have no right to expose her and me. It hurts. There are so many lies. I don't want to share her with the media. I hate them and how they sell my darling little girl like a commodity."

The writer also mentions how he misses her grave and needed to be close to her body. "I should have taken her that night."

Michael,

I was sorry to see my mailbox empty today after sending four mails to you yesterday. I hope you received them and will respond soon. Today, my head has been roaring with JonBenet and that night along with the thought of talking to the Ramseys and all you and I have talked about. There is so much I need to say to you and so little time given to me each day - a lousy hour. That might change soon.
>the duct tape, the rope, the stun gun and leave behind the weapon >that caused the blow to the head? Doesn't make sense. Too much >intelligence and preparation in play to make such a basic error.
I want to ask you a question about this whole taiser issue. Did the medical examiner determine and report that a taiser was used on her? If not, who determined this? If it was law enforcement, it could open itself up to a lot of reasons why they determined it. It would be a key piece in exonerating the Ramseys as they would have no reason for raising their own daughter to remove her from her bed. There was also no reason for raising JonBenet if it was NOT her parents. I know it was NOT her parents. I know and you know who it was and a taiser was not used, at least not at that time. I still ask you to describe those marks on JonBenet.

>How can i know. of course I flirted with the idea that she was an >alter ego, but I also flirted with the idea that she was real. A true alter ego is viewed as a third person by the person experiencing said alter ego. True multiple personalities are separate entities within one physical body. One is only aware of the other but does not consider it to be hisself or herself. I am not saying it was an alter ego. I am not saying, at this time, that it was a real person. I am going to leave this for now.

>One thing about the ransom note, however brilliant a distraction it >was, is that it is written as if more than one person is involved. So >when you rpreviously raised the issue of the female it made possible >sense.

And now I am confusing you which is the last thing I wanted to do. I will say that I was part if not the whole part of that note. In conclusion, I wish to take full responsibility for all the events that ocurred that night. You might well think I am protecting a girl and I might be. If I can think of a way to protect her and continue to interject and reveal that she was with me that night, I will. Otherwise, I just have to leave it for now until I can figure out how to handle it.

"Please do not allow it to discredit my intimate accounts of that night."

>How does this put the issue of the Tazer to rest. What is the "it" >that might discredit your account.

I was not talking about the taiser. I was talking about the flashlight found in the house.

>The basic point is, all the photographic evidence is that a stun gun >was used.

Michael, nothing is basic about the events of that night. I am a very complex person. Again, who says it is photographic evidence. What is photographic evidence anyway? Did the medical examiner note trauma to that area photographed caused by high voltage electricity? If so, was it in his report? I want you to find out for me because I will not dabble in anything to do with "the case". I am not here to discuss "the case". I am here to tell you what happened.

>The assumption is that it was short and savage. Your >argument is that it was drawn out, slow and intended to be so >because of the desire to arouse her and be aroused. As you can tell >by now, I'm convinced.

You cannot know what that means to me, Michael - that you are convinced. Thank you so much for believing me and standing by me. You have taken my part and revealed me to the Ramseys. You have not revealed me to anyone else. Sandrock knows something but not much. I do not think he should ever know that he met DAXIS in Paris. We must also remove Sandrock from the equation. If this book is published and is a success, and it will be, the world will pressure you and anyone who might know of me or my whereabouts, to such a degree that it will become unbearable. Only you and the Ramseys should have contact with me. Are you prepared for this pressure because it is sure that the world will call for the head of DAXIS.

I already know what it feels like and know I can handle it.

>You have a good memory. A group of us used to meet at the Trident.

>Did you ever go there when you were in Boulder.

I don't recall ever going to that place. I am not a coffee drinker.

>Interesting. We talked a lot about the case, with most people >disagreeing with me when I said that the parents didn't do it.

>What I didn't know was just how interesting the truth would prove to >be.

Again, you use the term "truth". I thank you. I talked about this situation only briefly with a few close friends and family in America before I left. I never told anyone I killed JonBenet. My father was really concerned about the fact that I visited her grave often. He would say, "DAXIS, they might have cameras at the gravesite. What if someone sees you there." It was a strange thing that he would single me out from the hundreds of others who visited her grave. He sensed something. I am sure it was based on my conversations with him about JonBenet. He was also aware that I was sexually attracted to little girls. That was something I told several close contacts. Well, there must not have been a camera because I talked out loud to JonBenet at her grave about that night....

>Thanks for the description. I wonder why he said that you had >light hair, or perhaps I misheard.

Maybe you recalled it that way because of the photo I sent to you that you thought was me as a child. I was a blonde child. That is what I looked like but that was not me. I told you the little girl's identity but you seemed to miss the whole issue.

>Guys after all don't spend too much time on discussing what other guys >look like.

Good.... Again, we need to remove him from the equation. There is no telling what he might do if pressured and he would be pressured if this is released to the world.

>Thank you for your frankness. It is of course very erotic.

I am glad you think my encounters with the 8 year old was erotic.

It was unreal erotic at the time.

>It made me think of how many eight year olds I have known socially >who had desires about which I hadn't a clue.

Many, but just know that little girls are not promiscuous. They have a taste in men and will only act this way with men they are attracted to.

>The fact the news media carry stories does seem to get you agitated. >Why is that.

It was an intimate love affair for me. It was my secret and JonBenet's secret. They have no right to expose her and me. It hurts. There are so many lies. I don't want to share her with the media. I hate them and how they sell my darling little girl like a commodity.

>I am sure you know that JonBenet was the biggest story of any kind..

But she was NOT a big story to me. She was my Little Princess. I was so in love with her. She is not a story. She was a little girl. I loved that little girl.

>Her name is globally recognized, a bit like Diana. Did you ever think >that would happen and, more importantly, how do you feel about it.

I did not think about it at all until it DID happen. I did not go to my Goddess for media attention. I went to her because the desire in me was unreal. I feel horrible that the world says her name like it is a brand name. Her name was so unique and special. It has been traded by the media like a cheap commodity. Damn them to Hell. I am also very possessive still of JonBenet. I would get upset when her grave was changed. I know that sounds odd, but I still have an inexplicable connection to her - even to her body that is now out of my reach which kills me. To me, from that night forward, she is forever mine. I share her only with her mother and father. When things would change about her grave, I would always say, this had better be the work of her parents and not someone else. I so miss that grave. I needed to be close to her body. I should have taken her that night....

>But I do want to help you to reveal what really happened. Talking to >the Ramseys is one way,

Thank you. I need to connect with JonBenet's mother especially. When you told me that her sweet father cried for her, I was touched. Poor Daddy. I have an enormous desire to love and embrace them both if they will let me.

>the book is another

The book is a must.

>publishing a version of our correspondence would be another.

No. Only a book.

>As our correspondence unfolds on a basically daily basis I know that >the key for you is to talk to Patsy. However, is there any other way >I can help you while that contact is being arranged? M Thank you so much for that. Yes, you can help me by responding to me. You can help me by reading messages from me to the Ramseys via phone. Please consider this. I will make the messages short. I think it will take something like this to reach their hearts. It will be filled with respect. Another issue you might tell them is that I am not a monster type with long shaggy hair and a beard. I am a polished, handsome, sophisticated person. I am a first grade teacher. I am also very very caring and wish to care for them during all their grief. I wish to grieve with them and to grant them peace. I can do this and more if given a safe chance. I want their home contact number for safe keeping. I want to begin our correspondence with e-mail that they verify. This is the only way I can do it for now.

There is so much more to say. Oh how I love that child, JonBenet. I am so glad she was a part of my life and continues to be with me in spirit. I am so glad that I have finally found a person like you who listens to me talk of my love and sexual lust for her and that you believe me and never judge me. I love you for that, Michael.

May 9, 2006 at 5:18 AM MST another E-mail is received by Michael Tracey from December 1996@hushmail.com, titled "More of That Night. The E-mail is lengthy. Within the text of the message, the writer identifying himself as DAXIS mentions John and Patsy Ramsey. He states he was with JonBenet Ramsey on the night of her death and attempted to revive her. DAXIS writes;

"Michael, I never said the Ramsey's would recognize my name. They will not recognize the name DAXIS. I was JonBenet's Closest, not theirs. I am very worried about JonBenet's mother. This is the best time to tell her about me. It has happened in the nick of time. I want to bring her peace. I will not do anything to harm her health. She will be cleansed. There is no need to protect her from me. I am here to help her. The question is, how can I gain John's trust. I promise not to go into any details at all about JonBenet's death. They need to know that she had a lover named DAXIS, that a dashing Prince was with her when she died; that she was not viciously murdered; that I cared for her and tried to revive her when I thought she was dead. I loved her so much and I am so sorry that she died in my arms. But it is important that they know WHO she was with and how she died. For instance, she did not suffer. That would mean the world to a mommy to know that her little girl did not suffer, that she was not tortured. It appears that way. It appears brutal. It was not. Those parents see a horrified child awaiting a brutal end when in reality, she softly went to sleep and never awakened."

Thank you for your letters. I appreciate that the caring you is back. I am sorry but you are going to have to handle me gently if you want me to get through this. I am on the verge of exposing myself to the whole world. At times, I think the whole thing between us will fall apart. It was especially evident when I saw that you had planned to dedicate a whole chapter to the ever illusive and mysterious evidential taiser. I see you at times, publishing a book to beat the Christmas deadline, without the intregal part of the story - DAXIS. You can't do that, Michael. You are wasting your time doing that. Sure, your book will be read but what will it say? what will it accomplish? For instance, you wasted so much of your time writing about that taiser. I could have saved you the entire chapter because I know the truth. You see, Michael, the whole "case", of which I hate, was and is tainted. Finally, you tell me that the flashlight disappeared. That tells you a lot. It was not mine. It was planted or never existed. The same with the taiser. I am glad you finally agree with me. Michael, I am allowing you to see beyond this haze that has been created by the speculators, the sleuths (Lou Smit), and those who are trying to make the Ramseys look innocent. Maybe you were testing me about the stun gun. Well, I passed the test. But those who created that theory failed. You know me, Michael. You know there was no reason whatsoever to use something like that. I will tell you now that I would never have considered taising my lover like that. All the signs of violence were actually based in love, sex and mercy. Never again let those who were NOT with JonBenet when she died, confuse you about the truth.

Michael, I never said the Ramseys would recognize my name. They will not recognize the name DAXIS. I was JonBenet's closest, not theirs. I am very worried about JonBenet's mother. This is the best time to tell her about me. It has happened in the nick of time. I want to bring her peace. I will not do anything to harm her health. She will be cleansed. There is no need to protect her from me. I am here to help her. The question is, how can I gain John's trust. I promise not to go into any details at all about JonBenet's death. They need to know that she had a lover named DAXIS, that a dashing Prince was with her when she died; that she was not viciously murdered; that I cared for her and tried to revive her when I thought she was dead. I loved her so much and I am so sorry that she died in my arms. But it is important that they know WHO she was with and how she died. For instance, she did not suffer. That would mean the world to a mommy to know that her little girl did not suffer - that she was not tortured. It appears that way. It appears brutal. It was not. Those parents see a horrified child awaiting a brutal end when, in reality, she softly went to sleep and never awakened.

>YOU HAVE THE INTELLECT THOUGH THAT JESUITS LIKE TO PRODUCE, CLEVER, >ABLE TO USE LANGUAGE, RIGOROUS.

Thank you. But I am not a Jesuit. I am aware of them.

"ACTUALLY THE REASON WHY I HAVE BECOME SO CONVINCED OF WHAT YOU ARE SAYING, CONVINCED THAT IT IS THE TRUTH IS PRECISELY BECAUSE YOU HAVE NOT PLAYED BACK THE COMMONSENSICAL UNDERSTANDINGS OF THE CASE. YOU HAVE EXPLAINED IN A TOTALLY ORIGINAL WAY. YOU CERTAINLY MADE ME THINK ABOUT THE CASE, WHICH I THOUGHT I KNEW INSIDE OUT, IN A TOTALLY DIFFERENT WAY."

I deeply appreciate this coming from someone I respect as I do you. It has become important to me that you believe in me. I will always go against the speculations and general consensus. The truth is never as it seems. In cases of exotic love, involving two very complicated people, there is not clear cut path lest one hears the truth spoken from those two lovers - DAXIS and JonBenet.

"THERE'S NOTHING WRONG WITH YOUR NAME, IN FACT IT IS REALLY INTERESTING AND CERTAINLY DIFFERENT."

Thank you again. It is lovely when placed beside JonBenet's name. It is very different, like me.

"I WASN'T AWARE THAT THE GRAVE HAD BEEN CHANGED, OTHER THAN THE HEADSTONE BEING PUT IN PLACE AFTER A YEAR."

It was nothing major. I went to be with her one day and someone had planted small flowers surrounding the marble slab that covers her grave. It hindered me from sitting beside her grave and draping my body over her to kiss her name. I just wondered who did it. I think Nedra did it but also I considered it might be her mother. In that case, it was ok but it hampered my regular ritual. They must never exhume her body. I will go out of my mind if that baby is touched. I have had fears that the Ramseys might move her. I just want her with me and not having control over that is difficult.

SEND THE MESSAGES AND ITS A DONE THING.

Thank you. I will give it some deep thought. My problem is the short one hour I get daily.

WHEN YOU SAY "VERIFY," WHAT DO YOU MEAN? I'M NOT VERY TECHNICALLY MINDED.

The landline number can be verified. I will accept a simple confirmation from them on the e-mail address but I can trace from where it was sent unless it is AOL.

This is something you ignored. I suppose it was arrogant of me to write it but it is what I feel. I also feel like a total idiot now that you did not respond to it:

>But I thought you were interested in cooperating on a book.

I don't know where this came from. You know I want this. Now that you brought it up, I think you should write a book about me. I think you should title it DAXIS with a small subtitle beneath referencing JonBenet. I think you should insert your commentary and interject the writings you have already done that revolve around the case. It would be the true cowriting experience. So there, I said it.....

By the way, I did not touch the twelve year old girl when I took her and returned her home. You mentioned a drawn out sex encounter. That never happened at that time. It DID happen when we spent several months together when she turned 13....

I want to move on and start talking to you about more things concerning that night. For instance, we were not together for hours. It was less time than you think.

I used tight leather driving gloves while in the house prior to the Ramsey family's arrival that night and partially when I was with JonBenet. However, there were times when I did not wear them so that I could touch her skin with at least parts of my hands.

By now, you have read in this letter that I made attempts to revive JonBenet. I have yet to describe the very dramatic reaction that I had when I realized she was not breathing. If anyone came close to screaming, it was I. I was crying and frantic - "Oh JonBenet please please please sweetheart! Breathe for me. Please don't leave me. I love you so much. Oh babydoll, please come back to me. Please, JonBenet!" I embraced her and squeezed her to depress her chest and breathed into her mouth trying everything in my power to revive her. I was out of my mind. It was Hell. There is no way to describe it. The rest of the events of that night are difficult for me to recall. The trauma of all that was unreal and still haunts me. Thank you so much for your belief and support. I do need you, Michael. I am sorry you are depressed. But please, we must get through this together. JonBenet did love DAXIS.... I love her so much.

Within an untitled E-mail dated May 22, 2006, at 9:45 AM, DAXIS writes, "I'm sorry. What can I do about it now? The whole night, I was overcome with desire. Are you asking me why I killed JonBenet? I don't see it that way. I don't see myself as a killer. Her and I were engaging in a romantic and very sexual interaction. It went bad and it was my fault. I wish I had stopped at the first object. It would have been wonderful to have her live but that did not happen."

On May 24, 2006 at 9:50 a.m. Mountain Standard Time another e-mail was received by Michael Tracey from December1996@hushmail.com. The untitled e-mail addressed the frustration of December1996@hushmail.com regarding a letter forwarded to John Ramsey. The author of the e-mail was also the author of the letter forwarded to Mr. Ramsey. The author of the e-mail (December1996@hushmail.com) expressed his frustration at not being contacted or receiving any communication from Mr. Ramsey following the alleged receipt of the letter. Mr. Tracey advised December1996@hushmail.com that in the future either John or Patsy Ramsey might forward a phone number for contacting them. Mr. Tracey encouraged the author of the e-mail to speak with either John or Patsy Ramsey. Mr. Tracey added "I know you are worried about your safety but don't since law enforcement in Boulder is not looking for you." December1996@hushmail.com replies "bullshit Michael. I am confessing to murder. How do I know that the Ramsey's who want so much to be exonerated are not plotting to snare me with law enforcement, tapping and tracing the phone conversations? I was not born yesterday and I was also the victim of this in the past. Please don't respond that I should not feel this way about the Ramsey's. You cannot judge what a parent might be capable of when it comes to the killer of their daughter."

Additional e-mails were exchanged between Michael Tracey and December1996@hushmail.com or DAXIS regarding frustration in not receiving a reply from John or Patsy Ramsey regarding the letter that was forwarded to them by DAXIS. Additionally DAXIS details his frustration with Michael Tracey in not answering each and every question posed in e-mails posed to Mr. Tracey.

Within an untitled e-mail dated May 28, 2006 at 2:10 p.m. Mountain Standard Time received by Michael Tracey from December1996@hushmail.com, the writer is informed by Mr. Tracey "Patsy read it" referring to the aforementioned letter that was forwarded to John and Patsy Ramsey previously. Within the aforementioned e-mail, DAXIS is informed that the cancer in which Patsy Ramsey has been suffering, has metastasized into her brain.

Within an e-mail entitled "a notes delivery" received by Michael Tracey on May 30, 2006 from December1996@hushmail.com the writer identified himself as DAXIS explains the location he placed the ransom note found in the Ramsey's residence by Patricia Ramsey on December 26, 1996. Within the body of this e-mail, DAXIS stated that he was carrying the handwritten note upstairs to lie on the pillow of JonBenet at which time he heard sounds within the residence. He believed the sound to be a voice. DAXIS indicates "I would never make to her bedroom to deliver the note. Instead I dropped it where I stood and quickly yet quietly made my escape. I made a mad dash for the basement. Halfway down into the basement, I realized I had no shoes on. I quickly yet quietly went back to the top of the stairs of the basement and retrieved my shoes. With not a moment to waste listening for yet more sounds. I made my way back down the stairs to my lover "JonBenet Ramsey" who awaited her funeral. I was terrified. For some reason I felt someone might have awakened in the middle of the night and might have by chance went in to check on JonBenet finding her gone. Though not likely, I feared they might have heard me and would have some way to know I was with her in the basement. One side of me discounted this is nonsense. The noise could have been in my own imagination. I had to escape quickly. There was no time for the funeral ritual I had in my mind for my little girl. I went to her once more. Unfortunately my ado would be bitterly cut short by any and urgency that I must escape quickly. My last moments with her were so short. I love you, sweetheart. Should I take you? But how? There is no time for that. It would be one of the biggest regrets I would have. I should have taken her body with me."

On several occasions Michael Tracey inquired from DAXIS how the circular markings appeared on the side of the face of JonBenet Ramsey at the time of her death. DAXIS or December1996@hushmail.com never admitted to the use of a stun gun. However within an untitled e-mail dated June 2, 2006 received by Michael Tracey from December1996@hushmail.com at 10:21 p.m. Mountain Standard Time, the author mentions that he used a "cross" composed of short arms that may have caused the marks on her face. The author wrote "the cross had short arms and could have terminated in small rectangular ends. The cross was of course close to the area of her face that has the marks. It would have been easy for me to have pressed the cross against her face. It might coincide with the reason one rectangular shape was larger than the other since the pressure against the skin from say the top end of the cross might have been greater than the tip end of the arms of the cross. The identical mark on her back might have occurred when I held the asphyxia object along with the cross in my hand as we kissed and as I caressed her just before I placed it on her neck and after I removed it from her neck."

Within an untitled e-mail dated June 5, 2006 received by Michael Tracey at 10:13 a.m. Mountain Standard Time, DAXIS reveals his excitement in realizing he may be speaking with either John or Patsy Ramsey within the next several hours. A time frame had been arranged by way of e-mails between Mr. Tracey and DAXIS for DAXIS to contact the Ramsey's. It should be noted that a specific telephone number had previously been assigned to the Ramsey residence while they were residing at 865 Brooksglenn Drive, Roswell, Georgia, 30075. The telephone line installed at the aforementioned residence is 770-641-1340. The phone number was installed by the Roswell Georgia Police Department. Within the body of the aforementioned June 5, 2006 e-mail authored by

DAXIS, he provided his phone number as "01160174182465." On the same date DAXIS placed a telephone call to the aforementioned-recorded telephone line at the Roswell Georgia address. He did not speak with either John or Patsy Ramsey however a telephone message was left by DAXIS on the telephone-recording device.

Following the aforementioned telephone call placed to the Ramsey residence in Roswell Georgia, DAXIS became upset that he did not receive a return telephone call. E-mails received by Michael Tracey authored by December1996@hushmail.com or DAXIS indicated DAXIS'S displeasure in not receiving a return telephone call from either John or Patsy Ramsey.

On June 11, 2006 at 1:47 p.m. Mountain Standard Time Michael Tracey received an e-mail from December1996@hushmail.com in which the author identified as DAXIS provides two new telephone numbers for Michael Tracey to contact him through. The first phone number is listed as "in England: 447787133033 outside England: 6679770681." The email is signed DAXIS.

Numerous additional e-mails are received by Michael Tracey from December1996@hushmail.com or DAXIS. DAXIS is hopeful that the manuscript will become a book. The manuscript details the life of DAXIS, his interaction with JonBenet Ramsey and a subsequent murder of this child.

Michael Tracey received portions of the manuscript during June and July of 2006. A review of the manuscript revealed that specific verbiage within the manuscript matched specific verbiage in many of the e-mails received by Michael Tracey that had been authored by DAXIS or December1996@hushmail.com. Additionally chapters of the manuscript coincided with titles appearing on the e-mails received by Mr. Tracey that had been authored by DAXIS or December1996@hushmail.com.

Your Affiant determined through an Internet Search using the search engine of "Whois.com" that "Hushmail.com" is actually Hush Communications Anguilla, Inc, c/o Hush Communications Canada Inc. Suite 203, 455 Granville Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada V6G1T1, Business Telephone: 604-685-6937, FAX: 604-685-6907.

On May 11, 2006 Inv. Andy Horita, a Commissioned Peace Officer with the Boulder District Attorney's Office conversed by way of telephone with representatives of Hush Communications Anguilla Inc, and determined "Hushmail.com" provides both non-fee and fee-based E-mail services and does not routinely forward the Internet Provider (IP) address of the E-mail sender, within the E-mail message forwarded by Hushmail.com. However, it is technically possible to capture the IP information from the company's server.

Inv. Horita was advised by representatives of Hush Communications Anguilla Inc in Vancouver, British Columbia, a request for the information should be placed through the Federal Bureau of Investigation and then submitted through the "Legal Attache" Format or LEGAT."

Therefore, on the same date of May 11, 2006, Inv. Horita spoke with Special Agent John Gedney of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, business address: 1050 Walnut Street, Suite 219, Boulder, Colorado 80302, Telephone: 303-443-4900. SA Gedney informed Inv. Horita that a request made through the aforementioned LEGAT process can be completed in a timely manner.

On May 11, 2006, following the conversation with SA Gedney of the FBI, Inv. Horita conversed with Royal Canadian Mounted Police constable Rod Giles (Telephone: 604-598-4083) Constable Giles stated he is the liaison of the RCMP with Hush Communications Anguilla Inc. Inv. Horita requested Constable Giles to contact Hush Communications Anguilla Inc and request the company take measures to capture the originating IP address and all E-mail messages sent from December1996@Hushmail.com. Also requested was a "Snapshot" be taken of the account information – including any fee based payment information and that the account holder not be notified of any actions taken. Also requested was any payment information if available be collected and forwarded to the Boulder District Attorney's Office. Constable Giles stated he would contact representatives of Hush Communications Anguilla Inc, in Vancouver British Columbia, Canada, and determine the correct process to acquire the requested information.

Inv. Horita was re-contacted by RCMP Constable Rod Giles on May 19, 2006 and advised the requested information would not be released through Hush Communications Anguilla Inc, without a Court Order.

On May 26, 2006 at approximately 3:10 PM, your affiant conversed with RCMP Constable Rod Giles and confirmed the aforementioned "Snapshot" had been captured on the "December1996@hushmail.com" account. However the account information and all other personal identifying information requested cannot be released to your affiant without a Court Order submitted through the Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty or MLAT the United States government has with Canadian authorities. The MLAT process routinely takes up to six (6) months for the process completion.

Your Affiant believes the individual identifying himself as "December1996@hushmail.com" and DAXIS has demonstrated through the aforementioned E-mails he has intimate personal knowledge of the events encompassing the death of JonBenet Ramsey. The person also has claimed responsibility for the First Degree Murder of JonBenet Ramsey as is outlined in his March 28, April 19, May 6, May 7, May 9, May 22, 2006 E-mails and insinuated within other E-mails. A review of the aforementioned E-mails follows:

March 28, 2006 E-mail:

The E-mail received by Mr. Tracey on March 28, 2006 at 4:24 AM MST and titled, "Kisses for JonBenet", "December1996@hushmail.com" writes, "JonBenet was taken from her bed peacefully by a female. She was simply lifted into the girl's arms and carried quietly downstairs. The girl felt like her mother, smelled like her mother, was soft and sweet like her mother. JonBenet was a heavy sleeper. It was attributed to her bounding energy during her waking hours. She was quiet and reserved. She was playful and very alive. When the time came for sleep, she slept hard. Nothing covered her mouth nor was she drugged or stunned or harmed in any way when she was removed from her bed. Genius, many times, overlooks simplicity."

The writer also mentions "I have had sex with teens and I have had sex with little girls. The experience is unreal and limited. That is what fuels the sexual frustration. The frustration is unreal. Most of my life has been celebrate (sic) In every case where I had sexual or romantic relationship with a little girl, 10 or younger, I have gone straight to the mother and revealed my feelings and actions. Their reactions might surprise you."

April 19, 2006 E-mail:

The April 19, 2006 E-mail received by Mr. Tracey at 4:52 AM, MST, titled, "JonBenet/My Lover", December1996@hushmail.com writes, "There was a dance in the act performed with JonBenet but also a dance between two killers – one male and one female. The male is not necessarily the dominant one nor the violent one...." The writer also includes the following verbiage in the same E-mail, "...Yes, I am aware of the blunt trauma to her head. It was the worst of the end result. It went against all that I believed in because it tarnished my princess. Blood in small quantities is a different matter such as blood from her hot little cunt that I so wish I could drink at this very moment. But the trauma to her head haunts me – so horrible. An act committed to assure that she would not be alone, dying a slow death.”

May 6, 2006 E-mail:

The May 6, 2006 E-mail Michael Tracey received at 7:43 AM MST, titled, “Intimate Moments” from “December 1996@hushmail.com”. Mr. Tracey writes:

“...What becomes clear is that a kind of gentle touching, particularly with your tongue, is something that you find profoundly erotic.”

December1996@hushmail.com responds, “That was not the important part. The fact that I drank her for the first time and it made me want her blood was the purely erotic and important theme.”

May 7, 2006 E-mail :

The E-mail received by Mr. Tracey on May 7, 2006 at 4:54 AM MST titled, “Last of the Series” reads in part, “In conclusion, I wish to take full responsibility for all events that occurred that night...”

May 9, 2006 E-mail:

The E-mail received by Michael Tracey on May 9, 2006 at 5:18 AM MST, titled, “More of That Night” reads in part, “Michael, I never said the Ramsey’s would recognize my name. They will not recognize the name DAXIS. I was JonBenet’s Closest, not theirs. I am very worried about JonBenet’s mother. This is the best time to tell her about me. It has happened in the nick of time. I want to bring her peace. I will not do anything to harm her health. She will be cleansed. There is no need to protect her from me. I am here to help her. The question is, how can I gain John’s trust. I promise not to go into any details at all about JonBenet’s death. They need to know that she had a lover named DAXIS, that a dashing Prince was with her when she died; that she was not viciously murdered; that I cared for her and tried to revive her when I thought she was dead. I loved her so much and I am so sorry that she died in my arms. But it is important that they know WHO she was with and how she died. For instance, she did not suffer. That would mean the world to a mommy to know that her little girl did not suffer, that she was not tortured. It appears that way. It appears brutal. It was not. Those parents see a horrified child awaiting a brutal end when in reality, she softly went to sleep and never awakened.”

May 22, 2006 E-mail:

The untitled E-mail received by Michael Tracey on May 22, 2006 at 9:45 AM, DAXIS writes, “I’m sorry. What can I do about it now? The whole night, I was overcome with desire. Are you asking me why I killed JonBenet? I don’t see it that way. I don’t see myself as a killer. Her and I were engaging in a romantic and very sexual interaction. It went bad and it was my fault. I wish I had stopped at the first object. It would have been wonderful to have her live but that did not happen.”

The unidentified writer also describes his desire or describes actual physical acts of sexual intercourse with young girls as outlined in his E-mails dated March 28, April 19, May 6 and May 22, 2006. Of particular note is the fact the writer mentions in his April 19, 2006 E-mail, “Blood in small quantities is a different matter such as blood from her hot little cunt that I so wish I could drink at this very moment. But the trauma to her head haunts me – so horrible. An act committed to assure that she would not be alone, dying a slow death.”

Your affiant conversed with Sgt. Cameron Rowe of the Roswell, Georgia Police Department on May 19, 2006 at approximately 9:00 AM Mountain Standard Time (MST). During this telephone conversation your affiant explained the need for an investigative tool, such as a land line (telephone line) installed at the Ramsey residence in Roswell, Georgia for the purpose of capturing the telephone conversation between December1996@hushmail.com also known as DAXIS. Coupled with a trace of the incoming telephone call. Sgt. Rowe advised your affiant the Roswell Georgia Police Department could assist with the requested investigative tool.

On May 22, 2006 (Monday) at approximately 9:00 AM MST Sgt. Rowe advised your affiant the requested landline would be installed at the Ramsey residence in Roswell Georgia. A Consent Form would be presented to the Ramsey family for installation of the line. However, the Legal Department of Bell Telephone Company, which provides telephone service to the Ramsey residence, was requesting a Court Order for the installation of the telephone line.

Therefore, your affiant procured an Affidavit for Court Order, which will be forwarded to Sgt Cameron Rowe of the Roswell Georgia Police Department.

Purpose of the installation of the requested telephone line at the Ramsey residence would be of material aid in identifying information pertaining to the unknown caller, currently known only as December1996@hushmail.com. The installation of the requested telephone line would provide information pertaining to Subscriber information, Account Information, Credit Information, Billing Records, Call Origination / Termination Location and the Physical Address of the caller.

The installation of the requested telephone line with accompanying phone and telephone recording equipment was completed on June 2, 2006. The assigned number to the installed telephone was subsequently provided to the individual known as, “December 1996@hushmail.com”. The same individual was also known as DAXIS as this was the name he was using to conclude E-mails messages he was routinely sending to Michael Tracey, who in turn, forwarded the messages to your affiant.

On June 4, 2006 at approximately 11:00 AM MST, a telephone call was received at the aforementioned installed telephone-recording device at the Ramsey residence in Roswell, Georgia. The caller identified himself as DAXIS. The call was approximately thirteen (13) seconds in duration. The caller mentioned he would like to speak with Patricia. The call ended with no further discussion.

On June 5, 2006 at approximately 10:13 hrs, MST an E-mail was received by Michael Tracey from "December 1996@hushmail.com". The writer requested Mr. Tracey contact him by phone and provided his telephone number of:

011-60-17-4182465.

The writer again ended his message with the name of DAXIS.

The first three numbers (011) are the International Access Code. The second series of numbers (60) is the "Country Code" assigned to the foreign country. The "Country Code" of 60 is assigned to Malaysia, according to the most recent published edition of the Qwest/Dex 2006 Metro Denver Telephone Directory. The time difference between Malaysia and the Mountain Standard Time Zone of the United States is "Plus 15 Hours", according to the aforementioned Qwest/Dex Telephone Directory.

On June 13, 2006 at approximately 12:44 PM, MST an E-mail was received by Michael Tracey from "December 1996@hushmail.com". The writer (DAXIS) stated:

"I am providing two phone numbers. The first is my number in England. The second is a number in another city outside of England. This second number outside of England will change every month for the duration that you have interest in talking to me. It is securely set up and will provide me the with greatest protection of Anonymity. For this reason, I ask that you use the number outside of England most often. The number in England is a personal number that could most likely be traced:

In England: +44 7787133033

Outside England: +66 79770681"

The writer again ended his message with the name of DAXIS.

On July 19, 2006 Michael Tracey received by way of e-mail from December1996@hushmail.com or DAXIS a message entitled "about _____". Within this e-mail DAXIS explains his initial meeting with _____. He explains that while at school, he sat in the adult section of the cafeteria and no other adults were around. The female later identified as _____ was waving towards DAXIS and "acting silly". She eventually sat next to DAXIS. She identified herself as _____. She stated she was five years of age. Another female who identified herself as _____ accompanied _____. _____ said she was from South Africa. She mentioned that DAXIS was "a monster".

DAXIS asked her why she would describe him as a monster. replied "when I first saw you I knew you were a monster. You look like a monster. I was scared of you. You scared me." According to the e-mail, DAXIS asked "what did you think I would do to you?" According to DAXIS, then grabbed her side and said "I thought you would grab me here and hurt me". DAXIS also mentioned in this e-mail that "then and would pretend to take their eyes out and feed them to me along with other parts of their bodies. and would then put little carrots on my plate for me to eat. I then looked at and told her she was a princess. She loved and asked later that I call her a princess again. I told I love those freckles on your nose. replied would you like to eat them?" DAXIS replied "oh yes my love." then pretended to feed her freckles to DAXIS and DAXIS "gobbled them up". DAXIS asked to see "your little hand" and obliged and laid her hand in his hand. DAXIS added "I thought of JonBenet and what it was like to hold her little hand." DAXIS also mentioned "I held lovely little hand and traced along the inside of her palm with my finger then up her wrist. I thought of JonBenet wrists and how I tied them up that night. I then just placed my other hand over her little hand and held her little tightly for a few seconds. And I said you're so precious my little darling". DAXIS then writes "I then saw her little bellybutton and said I would love to eat it". According to DAXIS, began pulling up her shirt and flashing her bellybutton. Then raised her shirt and flashed her bellybutton at DAXIS. DAXIS writes "I sat in a trance as I gazed at two five year olds flashing their hot little bellybuttons at me." DAXIS indicated "I then asked them if they would be students in the fall. They both said yes. I told them I would teaching second grade and it would be so wonderful to see them in the fall." DAXIS also indicated "I thought about JonBenet a lot while I was with especially. No she did not look like JonBenet but she was five and little. She was so rull of life like JonBenet was. She was brave like JonBenet. She immediately bonded with me and quickly told me she liked me just like JonBenet. Her comments about me being a monster made me feel strange. Telling me she was scared of me was really bizarre. Of course she was acting silly the whole time she said it but there also seemed to be some kind of seriousness about it. It was as if she was saying she could detect something dark about me. She also ran her fingers across her neck and suggested that this is what I might do to her if I catch her. It was almost chilling as it reminded me of JonBenet. I have made my little friend age five and her little friends and ny friends. DAXIS explains that he was seated adjacent to and his hand dropped under the table. was tapping DAXIS with her little foot. DAXIS writes "I suddenly held onto her foot underneath the table. She was wearing sandals and I massaged her little foot with her sandal on it. She looked at me intently and with pleasure." DAXIS also indicates that he said "oh I love you. Your little foot is so precious". DAXIS writes "her naked little foot felt so sexy in my hand. It was almost like feeling her naked body sliding up next to me. Her little foot was divine. I looked down at it as I caressed it. Her little toenails were painted with glitter polish. Oh sweetheart I love this little foot." DAXIS concludes this e-mail by stating he regrets that he will not see her or be her teacher as she will be in first grade and he teaches second grade.

As previously documented, the first telephone call between Michael Tracey and DAXIS occurred on June 5, 2006 (Monday) at approximately 6:40 PM MST. Michael Tracey placed the call from telephone number 303-492-1357 at the University of Colorado School of Journalism and Mass Communication located in Boulder, Colorado, United States of America. The call was received at 60-174182465. The call was approximately 90 minutes in duration. The voices on the telephone were that of Michael Tracey and DAXIS. No other voices were heard. The person receiving the call answered the call as DAXIS. During this telephone call DAXIS mentions his love of JonBenet Ramsey. DAXIS describes JonBenet as "an incredible little girl with maturity beyond her years. I would imagine that her maturity level was at least twelve or fifteen...it was past six." DAXIS said he engaged in autoerotic asphyxia with JonBenet Ramsey in the basement of her residence on the Christmas night of her death (December 25, 1996) by placing a ligature around her throat and constricting the airway by tightening the ligature until JonBenet experienced a near state of unconsciousness. DAXIS then released the ligature, allowing JonBenet to regain consciousness. He repeated the procedure, however, on one of the procedures JonBenet did not regain consciousness and died in his presence. DAXIS said he was a "teacher" at the time he became acquainted with JonBenet Ramsey and was a teacher at the time of her murder. A Digital Recording Device recorded the telephone call.

The second telephone call placed by Michael Tracey to DAXIS occurred on June 24, 2006 (Saturday) at approximately 11:54 a.m. mountain standard time. Michael Tracey placed the call from telephone number 303-735-0021 at the University of Colorado's School of Journalism and Mass Communication located in Boulder, Colorado, United States of America. The call was received at telephone number 66-79770681. The numerals "66" are the Country Code assigned to Thailand according to the most recent published addition of the Qwest/Dex 2006 metro Denver telephone directory. The time difference between Thailand and the Mountain Standard Time zone of the United States of America is "plus fourteen hours" according to the aforementioned Qwest/Dex telephone directory. The call was approximately ninety minutes in duration. The voices on the telephone were that of Michael Tracey and DAXIS. No other voices were heard. The person receiving the call answered the phone as DAXIS. Michael Tracey informed DAXIS of the death of Patricia Ramsey. Patricia passed away at approximately 3:30 a.m. mountain standard time on June 24, 2006. Approximately five minutes into the call, DAXIS is heard crying. He states "I'll never hear her (Patricia) say I forgive you." "I'm never going to be able to say I'm sorry to her. I'd be in a five by nine cell now if I went to her. She meant so much to me." Approximately seven minutes into the call DAXIS stops crying. DAXIS mentions that due to the death of JonBenet Ramsey he "vanished off the face of the earth. I vanished from my family. I'll have no closure with JonBenet's mom. Her precious mom. I've been robbed." DAXIS then mentions a manuscript that he has been working on that he desires to provide to the world. DAXIS adds "for ten years I've been hiding. I blocked this out for ten years. I've blocked this out of my life for ten years." DAXIS also mentions "I stole John's daughter. I've stolen the daughter from parents before. Not killed them but stolen them. Ninety-nine percent of other dads despise me. Moms embrace me. Dads intimidate me." DAXIS also mentions "I don't want John catching me. I've been running for ten fucking years. If I ever got caught by law enforcement I'd kill myself. Patsy should have gone to Switzerland that's where I wanted to meet her. I had plans for her. My plans for her were huge. My book will be a huge success. I wanted to put Patricia Ramsey in a safe place in Switzerland. Now I've killed Patricia. I caused her stress. What happened to her little girl caused her stress." DAXIS added "I can't go into the United States. They have a warrant for me. If I step foot in that country they would arrest me." DAXIS also explains he was responsible for the death of a twelve year old female. DAXIS added that the murder of the twelve year old female was "a practice run for abducting a younger child" referring to the abduction and murder of JonBenet Ramsey. The telephone call was recorded by way of an audiocassette tape recording device.

The third phone call placed by Michael Tracey to DAXIS occurred on June 26, 2006 (Wednesday) at approximately 4:00 p.m. mountain standard time. Michael Tracey placed the call from telephone number 303-735-6235 at the University of Colorado's School of Journalism and Mass Communication located in Boulder, Colorado, United States of America. The call was received at the aforementioned phone number of 66-79770681. The call was approximately sixty minutes in duration. The voices on the telephone were that of Michael Tracey and DAXIS. No other voices were heard. The person receiving the call answered the call as DAXIS. During this telephone call, DAXIS reiterated his love for JonBenet Ramsey. He again spoke of being with JonBenet Ramsey on the night of her death. DAXIS explained he was in the basement of the Ramsey residence on Christmas night when the death occurred. DAXIS explained that he used the aforementioned ligature or garrote that he had placed around the throat and neck area of JonBenet causing her to lapse into unconsciousness. DAXIS again mentioned his abduction of a twelve-year-old female and subsequent killing of the child. DAXIS said the child was found approximately "twenty miles from her home and walking distance from my home". He did not provide further details of the location of the crime. The telephone call was recorded by way of an audiocassette-recording device.

DAXIS obtained a "stiletto" he brought to the scene and cut a lock of the child's hair. He used the same bladed instrument to cut the rope from the wrists of JonBenet. DAXIS, lowered JonBenet to the ground. He decided to place the ransom note he had prepared, on the bed of JonBenet and remove the child with him. DAXIS placed JonBenet in another room (the room she was subsequently located in) . He ascended the stairwell leading to the child's bedroom, , he heard a noise and descended. DAXIS placed the note on the stairwell. After retrieving his shoes, DAXIS departed through the same basement level window that he entered through.

As previously documented within this affidavit, the surveillance team members observed John Mark Karr DOB 12/11/64 respond to Mail Boxes Etc. obtain the package and respond to the Blooms Residence. No other individual was involved in the receipt of the package.

On August 11, 2006 at 8:48 AM MST, your affiant received by way of e-mail, six (6) photographs of DAXIS taken during the surveillance operations. Ann Hurst, Legal Attaché, Immigration and Customs Enforcement, U.S. Embassy Bangkok Thailand forwarded the photographs to your affiant. The photographs were received by your affiant on Friday August 11, 2006 at 8:48 a.m. Mountain Standard Time.

Your affiant forwarded the photographs to John Ramsey by way of e-mail and Michael Tracey requesting they inform me if they recognize the individual. Mr. Ramsey subsequently informed your affiant that he did not recognize the individual depicted within the series of six photographs. Your affiant also provided the name of John Mark Karr to Mr. Ramsey. Mr. Ramsey advised your affiant he had never heard of the individual.

Your affiant provided the same series of six photographs by way of e-mail to Michael Tracey. Your affiant subsequently determined Mr. Tracey did not recognize the individual depicted therein. Your affiant did not divulge the name of Mr. Karr to Michael Tracey.

On August 11, 2006 (Friday) at approximately 6:00 p.m., your affiant contacted Michael Tracey by way of telephone and requested Mr. Tracey to place a telephone call to DAXIS at approximately 11:00 a.m. Mountain Standard Time on the following date of Saturday August 12, 2006. Your affiant provided a short script of topics to discuss that were mainly centered on proceeding forward with the manuscript. Mr. Tracey agreed to place the telephone call.

Your affiant conversed with Investigator Mark Spray who remains stationed in Bangkok Thailand. Investigator Spray was aware of the telephone call to be placed by Mr. Tracey to DAXIS at the specific time of 11:00 a.m. Mountain Standard Time which is midnight in Bangkok Thailand. Investigator Spray stated he would remain in the hallway and attempt to hear any verbiage being spoken by John Mark Karr during the telephone call.

The eleventh telephone call placed by Michael Tracey to DAXIS occurred on August 12, 2006 (Saturday) at approximately 11:12 a.m. Mountain Standard Time. Mr. Tracey placed the call from telephone number 303-735-6265 at the University of Colorado School of Journalism and Mass Communication located in Boulder, Colorado, United States of America. The call was received at telephone number 66-51086290. The call was approximately seventy-eight minutes in duration. The voices on the telephone were that of Michael Tracey and DAXIS. No other voices were heard. The person answered the phone stating "Michael ?"

This marked the first time John Mark Karr had answered the phone in a name other than DAXIS. Michael Tracey asked DAXIS why he answered the phone in such a manner. DAXIS stated he believe he heard a pause on the telephone line and believed the call was being traced. Michael Tracey advised DAXIS that he was mistaken. DAXIS indicated he believed the call was being traced. Subsequently at 11:16 a.m. Mountain Standard Time the call was terminated by DAXIS by way of hanging up.

Your affiant who was present during the telephone call, requested Mr. Tracey to place another telephone call to the individual. Mr. Tracey desired to un-attach the telephone-recording device attached to his telephone. Your affiant instructed Mr. Tracey to leave the recording devices in place and re-contact the individual known as DAXIS. This was accomplished at 11:20 a.m. Mountain Standard Time.

During the telephone conversation, Michael asked DAXIS when he first met JonBenet Ramsey. DAXIS replied "I'm not going to tell you." DAXIS inquired why John Ramsey continues to refuse to talk to him. DAXIS added "he should know what happened. He should know what happened to his daughter. John doesn't know how she died. He knows physically how she died but not really how she died. I was there he wasn't there." DAXIS also stated "does John Ramsey have a warrant for his arrest? No he doesn't. I do. My life is shit."

DAXIS spoke of the five-year-old student whom he had affection for. DAXIS added "her first grade teacher I'm going to destroy him. I hate him. I hate fucking adults." DAXIS added "I work with a teacher who tried to get me fired but he got fired for indecent exposure."

DAXIS then spoke at length about the manuscript and his desire to receive compensation.

The telephone call was tape recorded by way of an audiocassette-recording device, which was tendered directly to your affiant by Michael Tracey at the conclusion of the telephone call.

During the telephone call, Investigator Mark Spray remained directly in the hallway adjacent to the entry door of apartment number 1927 of Blooms Residence, the aforementioned residence John Mark Karr DOB 12/11/64. Investigator Spray stated approximately nineteen minutes into the conversation he overheard John Mark Karr speak of working with a teacher who attempted to get him (Karr) fired however the teacher was fired for indecent exposure.

Investigator Mark Spray stated he overheard numerous other statements uttered by Mr. Karr however they were somewhat unintelligible that is they were difficult to hear through the walls and door of Mr. Karr's apartment.

Investigator Spray advised your affiant that as he entered into the hallway and approached apartment number 1927, two individuals were standing directly adjacent to the door to the aforementioned apartment. One individual was to the right the other individual was to the left of the entry door. They stood with their arms folded and their feet slightly more than shoulder width apart. Their backs were towards the entry door therefore they were facing the hallway. Both individuals made eye contact with Investigator Mark Spray who was attired in casual clothing. Investigator Spray described the two individuals as resembling the majority of the citizens residing in Thailand. As Investigator Spray approached the area of the hallway adjacent to apartment number 1927, the shorter of the two males advised Investigator Spray "don't come down here". Investigator Spray smiled at both of the individuals stating "how ya'll doin'. I live on this floor". The shorter of the two individuals left his eyes focused on Investigator Spray and did not remove his stare from Investigator Spray. Therefore Investigator Spray departed the area. He returned approximately ten minutes later carrying a bottle of liquor in his right hand. He entered into the hallway and observed the two individuals turned and departed. Investigator Spray returned approximately one or two minutes thereafter and the individuals that had been standing adjacent to apartment number 1927 had departed. Investigator Spray disposed of the liquor bottle and began listening to the telephone conversation, shortly thereafter he overheard the comment regarding the teacher being terminated for indecent exposure.

Your affiant conducted a query through Colorado Department of Motor Vehicles and a national query of Colorado Department of Motor Vehicles which revealed John Mark Karr DOB 12/11/64 had been issued Alabama operator's license [REDACTED] which expired on 04/23/03. eyes. The aforementioned criminal history stems from a single arrest through the Sonoma County Sheriff's Office on 04/13/01 regarding possession of obscene material, (under age fourteen sex act). Currently a bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of this individual pursuant to California State Statute 311.11(A).

Your affiant has requested the assistance of additional Investigators with the Boulder District Attorney's Office including but not limited to Andy Horita and Legal Secretary Marci Lieberman to assist in collecting background information on John Mark Karr DOB 12/11/64.

On August 11, 2006 (Wednesday) your affiant received by way of e-mail from Michael Tracey, parts 1-3 of the manuscript prepared by DAXIS. The front page of the manuscript contains the word DAXIS in large print. At the bottom of the cover page appears the verbiage "Written by DAXIS / copyright 2006 / no part of this written work may be reproduced in any form without the consent of the author, DAXIS."

The manuscript contains one hundred and fifty three pages detailing the childhood life of DAXIS or John Mark Karr DOB 12/11/64. The manuscript also contains details of the murder of JonBenet Ramsey. The details appearing within this manuscript coincide with verbiage appearing in numerous e-mails received by Mr. Tracey. Additionally the verbiage in the manuscript also matches verbiage recorded on many of the aforementioned telephone calls received by DAXIS from Michael Tracey.

The aforementioned eleven telephone calls placed by Michael Tracey and received by DAXIS between June 5, 2006 through and including August 13, 2006, were either digitally recorded or recorded by way of an audio cassette recording device. Your affiant has listened to the audiocassette tape recordings and the digitally recorded telephone conversations. Your affiant has also conducted interviews with Michael Tracey regarding the content of the aforementioned telephone calls.

Your affiant continues to interact with Michael Tracey on a daily basis regarding e-mails received by Michael Tracey from December1996@hushmail.com also known as DAXIS and content of telephone calls placed by Michael Tracey to DAXIS.

On August 14, 2006, Boulder DA Inv. Andy Horita contacted the Colorado Department of Education's Educator Licensing Unit supervisor, Barbara Allen, located at 201 East Colfax Avenue, Room 105, Denver, CO 80203, Phone 303-866-6600; and learned that a file pertaining to John Mark Karr DOB/12-11-64, exists but is "confidential" pursuant to CRS 22-2-111(3). Allen advised Inv. Horita that the information contained in the file was forwarded to her department from the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification's clearinghouse, but additional information could only be obtained through a court order. Subsequently, an Affidavit for Search Warrant and accompanying Search Warrant was obtained and forwarded to Colorado Department of Education's Educator Licensing Unit, on the same date of August 14, 2006. Requested were any and all documents, photographs, fingerprint cards, electronic files, applications, or correspondence, contained in the Colorado Department of Education's Educator Licensing Unit's file for John Mark Karr DOB/12-11-64.

Your Affiant believes the individual identifying himself as "December1996@hushmail.com" and DAXIS has demonstrated through the aforementioned telephone calls he has intimate personal knowledge of the events encompassing the death of JonBenet Ramsey.

A review of the telephone calls placed by Michael Tracey and received by the person identifying himself as 'DAXIS' reveals:

DAXIS claims responsibility for the First Degree Murder of JonBenet Ramsey, causing her death on during the late evening hours of December 25, 1996(Christmas) or the early morning hours of December 26, 1996.

DAXIS provided details of the murder during a July 15, 2006 telephone call with Michael Tracey. DAXIS said he forcibly entered the Ramsey residence, removed JonBenet from her bedroom, carried her downstairs to the basement level, tied ligatures around her wrists, suspended her near a basement window, formed a garrote that he placed around the throat of JonBenet and tightened the device until JonBenet Ramsey lapsed onto unconsciousness. "DAXIS" claims responsibility of forcibly striking the head of JonBenet Ramsey with a flashlight that he wrapped with duct tape. DAXIS said he cut the vagina of JonBenet and drank her blood. DAXIS said he wrote a note that he left on a stairwell of the residence.

DAXIS claims he is currently teaching second grade at an International School in Thailand. The school was either recently built or remodeled.

DAXIS describes the classroom as having new wooden floors, a 25-foot long wall of solid glass extending the length of his classroom. Green plants and a row of palm trees are visible outside the glass wall.

AFFIDAVIT FOR ARREST WARRANT

Your, affiant, Thomas A. Bennett, a duly sworn commissioned investigator for the Boulder County District Attorney's Office, County of Boulder, State of Colorado, deposes and says:

Your affiant, Chief Investigator Thomas A. Bennett of the Boulder County District Attorney's has a total of 31 years of Law Enforcement experience.

Your affiant requests an Arrest Warrant be issued based on the following:

On 12/26/96, at 5:57 AM, a 911-telephone call was received at the Boulder Police Department, address 1805 33rd Street, Boulder, Boulder County, Colorado. The caller identified herself as Patricia Ann Ramsey, DOB/ 12-29-56. Patricia, or "Patsy" as she is known by her family and friends, reported her daughter -JonBenet Ramsey DOB/08-06-90 (age 6 at the time of the incident) had been kidnapped from the Ramsey residence located at 755 15th Street, City of Boulder, Boulder County, Colorado. Ms. Ramsey added a handwritten ransom note had been left in the house. The kidnapers demanded $118,000.00. The kidnapers indicated in the note that they would call back at 10:00 AM with further instructions.

Boulder Police Department Crime Report P96-21871 addresses the investigation.

Boulder Police Officer Rick French was the first officer to arrive at the scene and made contact with the parents of the victim, identified as John Bennett Ramsey DOB/12-07-43 and his wife Patricia Ramsey. The parents related that the previous evening, this being Christmas day 12/25/96, they along with JonBenet Ramsey age 6 and JonBenet's brother identified as Burke Hamilton Ramsey DOB/01-27-87 (age 9) had attended a Christmas party at a friends house and had returned to the Ramsey home at approximately 10:00 PM. JonBenet was asleep in the family vehicle upon arrival at the Ramsey residence. John Ramsey carried JonBenet from the family vehicle to the second floor bedroom she occupied in the home. JonBenet was last seen in her bed asleep at approximately 10:00 PM on 12/25/96. John Ramsey, his wife Patsy Ramsey and their son Burke also retired at approximately 10:30 PM. John and Patsy Ramsey retired to their upper level master bedroom. Burke retired to his own bedroom.

The Ramsey family had previously prepared for a trip to Charlevoix, Michigan the next morning (December 26, 1996) using a small private airplane.

Patsy Ramsey stated she awoke shortly after 5:30 AM the morning of 12/26/96 and was going to prepare for the trip to Charlevoix, Michigan. Patsy Ramsey checked the bedroom of JonBenet and noticed her daughter was not in her bed. Patsy descended a spiral staircase leading from the second floor to the first floor and found a 3-page handwritten note on the stairs. Ms. Ramsey briefly reviewed the note and determined that it was a note demanding ransom for the return of their daughter, JonBenet. Patsy Ramsey told her husband John Ramsey of the discovery of the note. Patsy and John Ramsey checked their daughter's room and discovered JonBenet was missing from her bedroom. Patsy Ramsey called 911 and reported the kidnapping to the Boulder, Colorado Police Department.

Officer Rick French arrived and conducted a preliminary examination of the Ramsey residence and was unable to locate JonBenet Ramsey in the home. Officer French requested assistance at the scene by way of his police radio.

Other Boulder Police Officers including Detective Linda Arndt responded to the scene. The scene was initially treated as a kidnapping. Telephone surveillance was initiated pending the anticipated telephone call from the kidnappers at 10:00 AM. The phone call was not received at the Ramsey home. At approximately 1:00 PM on the same date of 12-26-96, Detective Arndt asked John Ramsey and a friend of Mr. Ramsey, identified as Fleet White DOB/05-19-49 to search the home again.

John Ramsey and Fleet White entered the basement of the residence. John Ramsey found his daughter on the floor in a windowless storeroom. JonBenet Ramsey was partially covered with a blanket and had duct tape on her mouth. Ligatures were on her wrists and a garrote type device encircled her throat. John Ramsey related that he removed the duct tape from his daughter's mouth and one of the ligatures from her wrists and then picked her up and brought her upstairs. A red colored ink marking was noted on the palm of her left hand. Mr. Ramsey was instructed by Detective Arndt to lay his daughter on the floor of the hallway near the front door of the residence. A short time later JonBenet's body was moved from the hallway to the living room. JonBenet Ramsey was deceased and it appeared as though she had been murdered.

On 12-27-96 Dr. John Meyers, the coroner for the Boulder Coroner's Office, conducted an autopsy on JonBenet Ramsey. The external examination of JonBenet Ramsey revealed she was attired in white colored sweatshirt or similar apparel and white colored sweat pants with an elastic waistband. Under the sweatpants, JonBenet wore oversized white colored underwear bearing the lettering of "WEDNESDAY" on the elastic waistband. Suspected bloodstains were evident on the underwear. A bracelet was noted on JonBenet's right wrist. Inscribed on one side of the bracelet was the name "JonBenet" on the opposite side the date of "12-25-96" was inscribed. JonBenet's blonde hair was fixed in two (2) ponytails, affixed with either a cloth hair tie and/or blue elastic bands. Detectives with the Boulder Police Department, attending the autopsy, seized numerous items of evidence, including the aforementioned items of clothing, bracelet, rope ligatures and the garrote type device containing various knots. The handwritten ransom note was placed into evidence. These evidentiary items were later submitted to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation for analysis

The cause of death of JonBenet Ramsey as determined by Dr. Meyers was asphyxia by strangulation associated with craniocerebral injuries. Also there was evidence of trauma and bleeding to the vaginal area. The manner of death was Homicide.

On 12-30-96, the bloodstains obtained from the panties of JonBenet were submitted to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation for testing. The lab results indicated that the major component of blood was attributed to JonBenet Ramsey. A secondary minor component was also found.

A large number of witness were interviewed including all Ramsey family members, close friends of the Ramsey family, business associates of Mr. Ramsey coupled with a Neighborhood Investigation. Numerous items of evidence were collected and submitted to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation Crime Laboratory for forensic analysis. However, the case remained unsolved Criminalist Greg LaBerge of the Denver Police Laboratory conducted tests on the bloodstains found in the panties of JonBenet. The results indicated that the minor secondary source of DNA contained a male fraction.

On 01-07-04 the minor secondary source of DNA found in the bloodspots of the panties was submitted to the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS) Database to be compared with existing and future samples submitted.

On May 10, 2006, your affiant conducted an interview with Michael Tracey, DOB/08-07-48, a Journalism Professor with the University of Colorado. Mr. Tracey produced a documentary on the death of JonBenet Ramsey entitled, "JonBenet's America", which aired in Europe during July 1998. Mr. Tracey also produced another documentary entitled "Who Killed the Pageant Queen" that was aired December 2004 in the United States. Mr. Tracey advised your affiant, that on September 10, 2002, he received an E-mail from an individual identifying himself as "December 25 1996@Yahoo.com". I later determined the E-mail was received at 4:31 PM Mountain Standard Time (MST). The E-mail was entitled "Our Sweetest JonBenet". This marked the first of a series of E-mails Mr. Tracey received from "December 25 1996" or "December 1996" during the next four years.

Mr. Tracey has provided your affiant with either printed copies of the E-mails he has received from the unidentified author or he has provided an electronic storage device containing the E-mails received. Your Affiant has personally review all of the E-mails

Michael Tracey received other E-mails from "December 1996@ziplip.com" detailing the writer's travels across Europe with "his girls" referring to the numerous young children in his company.

"December1996@ziplip.com" continued to write to Mr. Tracey during 2003 detailing his love of JonBenet Ramsey. The writer mentions his visits to 755 15th Street in Boulder, Colorado, which is the residential address of the Ramsey family when the First Degree Murder of their daughter, JonBenet Ramsey occurred. The writer also mentions his visits to the grave of JonBenet Ramsey where he prayed for her. However, the writer provides no details of these visits. The writer only mentions the fact that he visited both the residence and the gravesite.

Mr. Tracey did not receive any E-mails from "December 1996@ziplip.com" during 2004. The writer changed his screen name to "December1996@hushmail.com" in September 2005.

December1996@hushmail.com writes in an E-mail received April 15, 2006 at 4:41 AM MST, titled, "JonBenet / Near Death", his understanding of the Modus Operandi utilized in the death of JonBenet Ramsey. The writer mentions, "two distinct personalities, one was romantic and passionate. The other more pragmatic and violent which leads to the end result – one I do not like to think about." The writer also describes how JonBenet was placed in a vertical hanging position with her wrists tied together. Pressure was applied to her neck to deprive her of oxygen, causing "a dream like state." Sexual activity then was carried out; including the delivery of kisses then more asphyxia to heighten the sexual pleasure. Then pressure to her neck was released slowly. The writer ended the E-mail with the name of "DAXIS". This marked the first time in which the writer used the name of "DAXIS".

The writer now using the name as "DAXIS" continued to correspond with Michael Tracey via E-mail coupled with a series of eleven (11) telephone calls made between June 5, 2006 and August 12, 2006. All of the telephone calls were recorded and/or traced. Assisting with the trace were Special Agents of the Atlanta Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Special Agents with the Immigration and Customs Enforcement located in Bangkok Thailand and the Thailand Royal Police. During a phone call of July 15, 2006, "DAXIS" provided a detailed accounting of the sequence he carried out on December 25 – 26, 1996 at the Ramsey Residence. "DAXIS" admitted to: 1. Forcibly entering the Ramsey home via of a basement window. 2. Entering JonBenet Ramsey's bedroom and carrying her to a basement level room. 3. Placing ligatures around her wrists and suspending her from an area by a basement window. 4. Placing a "necklace" he fashioned out of rope brought to the scene and tightening the garrote until JonBenet Ramey was unconscious. 5. Placing duct tape on her mouth. 6. Striking her forcibly on her head with a flashlight he brought to the scene. 7. Cutting her vagina and drinking her blood. 8. Placing a handwritten note on the stairwell of the Ramsey Home. Then departing the residence. These admitted acts are consistent with the evidence observed at the autopsy of JonBenet Ramsey performed on 12-27-96 by Dr. John Meyer and with the evidence observed at the scene of the incident.

"DAXIS" forwarded to Michael Tracey via E-mail a 153-page manuscript detailing his involvement in the death of JonBenet Ramsey.

On August 3, 2006, "DAXIS" advised Michael Tracey he purchased a 21 speed Mountain Bike.

On the same date of August 3, 2006 (Thursday) a photograph of JonBenet Ramsey and her Mother Patricia (Patsy) Ramsey was packaged in an easily recognizable brown envelope measuring about 20 inches by 13 inches and forwarded through the United Parcel Service (UPS) to a location in Bangkok, that had been provided to Michael Tracey by "DAXIS" via E-mail. The address supplied by "DAXIS" was determined to be:

"DAXIS
Box 303,
2929 Carrefour Rama 4
Rama 4 Road, Klongtoey
Bangkok, 10110
Thailand."

The business was later determined to be a "Mail Boxes Etc" during a surveillance operation conducted through the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) unit in Bangkok and with the assistance of the Thailand Royal Police, Department of Special Investigations (DSI). Special Agent Gary Phillips of ICE was assisted by other ICE Agents, Col Naras and Gen. Isaraphan of the Thailand Royal Police in addition to other investigators with the DSI.

The package arrived on August 7, 2006. An individual arrived at the business riding a mountain bike. The individual obtaining the package containing the photograph was observed by the surveillance team to personally obtain the package and pay for the item. The person obtaining the was described by SA Gary Phillips of ICE as a Caucasian Male, 5'07" in height, 140 pounds in weight, brown collar length hair combed straight back, clean shaven, not wearing any prescription lens glasses and attired in a red short sleeve shirt and blue jeans. The male was followed by the surveillance team to the "Blooms Residence, 203/1 Soi #4, Soibumpen, Apartment t 1927, Bangkok, Thailand.

"DAXIS" informed Michael Tracey via E-mail he had obtained the package and expressed elation of the beauty of the enclosed photograph. The E-mail is dated August 7, 2006.

A subsequent inspection of passports of individuals residing at the Blooms Apartment complex revealed the identity of the person residing at apartment 1927 was:
